Conveys: -

all my int in & to that lot of land slab in the COS apt, lying E. of the C of C, in which is borne on the Liberty Bell Station & being bounded as follows, to wit, N. by lands of the Est. of Boston Parks, E. by lands of Eli Thompson, S. by lands of William White & W. by Washington St. & Liberty Bell alley. The being the same land bought by my mother from Boston Parks, except two lots which my mother, Rosa Perkins, sold off to Eli Thompson and Elizabeth Sims. This lot is a rectangle in shape being about the same number of feet on its N & S. sides, but being much wider on its E. side than on its W. side.

Rec'd. - "The above described lot of land is the only real prop. owned by Rosa Perkins at the time of her death and is the only real estate owned in common by William Perkins and Thomas Perkins."

Rec'd. - "whereas, Rosa Perkins departed this life, intestate, on or about April 29th, 1917, leaving as her only heirs at law and distributees her two sons William Perkins and Thomas Perkins; her husband having died more than 12 years ago and her other children having died while minors and not having married; the said Rosa Perkins not having owed any debts at the time of her death and all of her funeral expenses and expenses of her last illness having been taken care of by her insurance policy and it is being desired by William Perkins to Conroy to Thomas Perkins. all his interest in and to the real estate formerly owned by this mother was etc"
