Description /Significant Features:

Circa 1960 vacant storage shed located at 812 Russell Street, approximately 30 feet southwest of Resource 0341. This building is one story tall, roughly rectangular in plan, and appears to have been constructed in three parts. It has an asymmetrically pitched laterally gabled V-crimp metal roof and is clad in sheet metal siding. The east elevation of all three portions is open to the air and the building is supported by a concrete block pier foundation. There is no fenestration with the exception of the open east elevation.
