

From: Marion Edmonds <medmonds@scprt.com>
To:
Date: 8/16/2016 5:02:24 PM
Subject: Daily Press Clippings: Tuesday, August 16, 2016

Daily Press Clippings: Tuesday, August 16, 2016

Federal and state agencies are planning to place 25,000 cubic yards of dredged sand at Huntington Beach State Park to protect the south jetty

Coastal Observer

Conde Nast Traveler names Charleston world's friendliest city

The Post and Courier

A Charleston County Aviation Authority committee voted unanimously to boost parking fees

The Post and Courier

Charleston will review its rules on carriage horses and mules working in hot weather, but a local animal advocacy group says that's not the only things that should be studied

Associated Press / Charlotte Observer

DHEC is warning people to eat only limited amounts of bass from Lakes Keowee and Hartwell due to the finding of mercury in the species

AP / New York Times ; SC Radio Network

On September 21, the South Carolina Aquarium will unveil a new exhibit about its sea-turtle rescue program. The exhibit is called "Journey to Recovery"

The Post and Courier

The wave of businesses like Airbnb and VRBO has presented new challenges in Greenville, not the least of which is how and whether to regulate

Greenville News

Travelers Rest benefiting from Swamp Rabbit Trail

GSA Business

GSP gets international freight service

Greenville News

Off-peninsula Charleston traffic boom raises traffic concerns

Post and Courier

Charleston hotel consultant says outside pressures felt

Post and Courier

Cardinals could be more susceptible to mosquito-borne disease

Post and Courier

Beaufort mosquito patrol spraying

Beaufort Gazette

SC mosquitos likely to carry Zika, but experts don't expect outbreak

Rock Hill Herald

SCDOT has started upgrading the U.S. 601 and Interstate 26 interchange in Orangeburg County

Orangeburg Times and Democrat

South Carolina firefighters helping in Colorado

South Strand News

More than 40 American Red Cross volunteers from SC have deployed to the Louisiana area to assist with flooding

The Post and Courier

Harry Briggs Jr., the youngster at the center of Briggs vs. Elliott, dies at 75

AP / New York Times ; The Sumter Item ; Yahoo News

This fall USC adding 1,300 beds in privately-owned student housing

Columbia Regional Business Report

Coastal Carolina Flea Market goes green

The Post and Courier

Temps and tempers rising over climate change

Associated Press / Charlotte Observer

BCBS of South Carolina is checking medical records to determine if patients enrolled in the ACA are lying about smoking. Smokers pay a surcharge

Spartanburg Herald-Journal

Columbia nuclear fuel plant shuts down over excessive uranium

SC Radio Network

Marion Edmonds

medmonds@scprt.com