It is rare for municipal debt to remain outstanding through final maturity. Issuers need to understand options available to them in restructuring their bonds in all circumstances. This program will address in depth issues surrounding common types of restructuring including current and advance refundings as well less common types of restructuring including open-market purchases and tender programs. In addition, this on-demand webinar will cover aspects of municipal bankruptcy as it impacts the ability to restructure municipal debt.

Learning Objectives:

- You will be able to discuss refunding of bonds.
- You will be able to review purchase of bonds on the open market.
- You will be able to identify bond debt.
- You will be able to explain labor/executory contracts in general.
