Good morning guys!

We realize things are very much in flux and there's a lot going on in the next 24 hours, but please let us know if the Governor is considering any interviews. We would very much enjoy having her on the Today Show to talk latest on hurricane Matthew and its impact on South Carolina. NBC has correspondents across the southeast and they'll be there throughout the storm, we are non stop in our coverage.

Thanks for staying in touch with us throughout the day.

Talk soon and stay safe!
Sarah
