Kaden is my nephew and he has never met me, but I love him, and so do his parents. He needs to come home to his parents. Everyone here is eager to meet him!

I lost my son in a tragic accident a year ago and the pain that I have since delt with has been unbearable. To not hold him or kiss him or see him grow up has left me broken. Life is to short and I would hope no child is wrongly taken from their mother ever. That pain to not have your son in your life as a mother, is unbearable. I hope whatever happens that Kaden is taken care of and placed in the best home based on facts, nothing else and the fact is Kelsey is his mom and they belong together. That's a bond that should never be broken or kept apart
