All,

I've attached a "clean" PDF Revised MOA for signature and added the end date requested of September 30, 2014. I also corrected the agency names on the signature page since they got messed up during the back and forth red-lined versions.

I know Bryan will be out the next 2 days so I guess it will have to wait until Monday for signature. Then we could send you the files so that you could start printing next week.

I appreciate everyone's time and effort on this endeavor and do hate that it was so time consuming for all of us.

EK
