In the light of the terrorist attack, political assassination, mass murder at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston yesterday, is time to take down the Confederate flag wherever it appears on the statehouse grounds and anywhere else on publicly owned and taxpayer supported property. The flag is a symbol of slavery, racism, and racial hatred. It is unfit for the allegiance of Christian men and women. It encourages the most vicious among our fellow citizens to believe that their hateful, racist views are acceptable in the eyes of government and are endorsed by the body politic. By honoring the slavery, bigotry, and racial violence of the past, it encourages them to believe that current day violence is justified. Those who continue to fly and honor the Confederate flag share with the murderer the responsibility for yesterday's violence.

Gov. Haley:

The horrific murder spree yesterday in Charleston offers you a chance to stand courageously against racism and hatred. I call on you to immediately declare that henceforth all state buildings and property will never again fly the Confederate flag. That symbol is not one of Southern pride or heritage but rather of racism, hatred and treason. Surely you are smart enough to know this. Now you need to grow some backbone and stand up to the forces of hatred whose message came through loud and clear last night in Charleston.

Gov. Haley,

I am appalled by your initial reaction to the slaughter in Charleston! What kind of ethical standards or moral compass do you govern and live by?

You are an embarrassment to your state and to your party and to your family. The cavalier way you remarked on the deaths of 9 of your citizens was a reflection of an ignorance and callousness that helps explain why you condone the flying of the confederate flag in your state - what a repugnant leader you are!

I'm sure by now the feedback you've received about your remarks have led you to bring on the tears publically - SHAME ON YOU !!!!

As a native Southerner and Carolinian, I am writing to urge you to remove, once and for all, the Confederate flag that flies on the grounds of the statehouse. It is an abominable representation of the type of hatred that led Dylan Roof to slaughter 9 innocent people in their church home last night. You cannot issue a statement of concern for those victims and their families, however heartfelt and genuine, while continuing to so boldly embrace the legacy of hatred and violence that led directly to their assassination.

I am appalled at the fact that the Confederate flag--that symbol of treason and slavery and racism--is still flown at the top of its pole when the US flag has been lowered to half mast in response to the church massacre in Charleston. You can tell the Governor that her fine words butter no parsnips and that flag high on its pole speaks volumes about racism in South Carolina.

Out of respect to the victims and their family members of the Charleston AME Church shooting, I request that the Confederate flag be removed from the front of the State Capitol. The Confederate flag is a symbol of traitorous sabotage against our federal government, so I find it questionable that it would have a place of honor anyway. Additionally, it represents to many the flag of racial inequality that our state and country has tried to amend in the last half-century. Put it in a history museum where it belongs.

THE ENTIRE COUNTRY IS WATCHING TO SEE WHETHER YOU AS GOVERNOR REALLY HAS THE CHARACTER TO LEAD.

Almost 30 years ago I marched on Hilton Head Island to advocate the removal of the confederate flag as the state flag of South Carolina. Leaders must have the courage to do what's RIGHT, and not what is contemporary. Are you a real leader? History and what you do at THIS moment will answer that question long after your administration and your life has passed.

I'm sick of the racists, sick of the racism, and that which is being justified here in California because South Carolina refuses to remove that symbol from its state house. Last night just showed us we STILL have to fight this battle.

Please. Just take it down. Do with it what you will, but get rid of it.

 <SUBJECT>Confederate Flag at the state capitol</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

The confederate flag is a symbol of the history of South Carolina. It is a symbol of racism, of violence. It is a symbol of the terrorism, genocide, torture, and rape that this state and its white inhabitants committed against the black residents of the state. It is a symbol of treason - of a state so obsessed with maintaining its racial hierarchy and perpetuating human rights abuses that it seceded from the Union and encouraged other states to join it in this treason.

The confederate flag is a disgrace. It honors violence, racism, and treason. It reminisces for a time in which black people were subhuman property. It honors a tradition in which white people were free to mutilate, torture, and abuse black people with the full blessing of the law and the backing of the South Carolina government. To continue to fly that flag in the 21st century is a sign to every racist that the South Carolina government is with them - that there was something beautiful and honorable about a point in our history where whites could legally torture and kill black people and their victims had no recourse or rights. To continue to fly that flag in the 21st century is a sign to every black person in the state that the South Carolina government does not exist for them - that if indeed it is a government by and for and with the people, that it has only white people in mind. Every black resident of this state who goes to the capitol to conduct business - every black child in this state who visits the capitol to learn about history and civics - is faced with a state government that honors racism, that takes pride in treason, that sympathizes with white supremacists, and that reminisces for a time when our state laws and morals enshrined the institution of slavery.

Take down the confederate flag off our state capitol. Change the history of South Carolina by fighting for a better and more equal future instead of mourning the lost of our racist and violent past.

Sincerely,
 Katharine [REDACTED]

"Let Nikki Haley, the governor of South Carolina, look out her window at the flag of treason that is flown proudly at her state capitol and think about these things, and speak of them, before she pronounces herself so puzzled at how something like this could happen in South Carolina, the home office of American sedition."
 ~Charles P. Pierce

Your words and tears are meaningless unless you do something to change the culture of your state. Today is less a day about prayers and more a day for recognition of and action against a culture that promotes hatred and racism in South Carolina. Let it start with you, Governor Haley.

 <SUBJECT>The Confederate Flag Flying</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Mrs Haley,

It is shameful to fly a confederate flag at all, considering the history of the flag (defending the right to own people as property). However to keep it at full mast after the terrorist shooting at Charleston Church on any state property is high flying bigotry. As you can see from events such as this, hate does not just harm the hated, it harms the hater. Eating them up from the inside, born of ignorance and intolerance. We should be discouraging hate and hate groups. Let us evolve past the beasts we were, and are today as a country. Take that flag down and keep it down forever. I beg you. It was never something to be proud of. Slavery is America's holocaust. You don't see too many Nazi flags in Germany these days. In fact, I think it is illegal to fly in many countries. Likewise the confederate flag is a symbol of hatred.

Thank you,
 Margot [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I am 61 years old and was born and raised in SC. I can trace some of my ancestry back to Confederate soldiers. So I have my Southern credentials. But I want you to know I think it is high time that SC come to terms with the fact that the Confederacy was fighting for something evil and not noble. The Confederate flag is the flag of a government that wanted to treat certain humans like property. That's not what my beloved state is about today. Please use your influence to get that divisive symbol taken down.

Respectfully,

Elizabeth [REDACTED]

Get some guts take down that flag. The fact that it is flying today at all is a disgrace. Take the lead from of a places Texas affirmed by the United State Supreme Court and get rid of the Confederate license plates.

I used to love to visit Charleston but I will not return and spend my money in your state until and unless that flag is removed.

If you actually feel bad about the massacre in Charleston, then take down that hideous, racist, divisive confederate flag from the South Carolina statehouse. It is YOU, Governor, and your fellow right wing radicals, who continue to perpetuate and encourage exactly the kind of racist hatred that inspired this massacre. Start supporting gun control. Start helping all your citizens become voters instead of trying to limit non-whites from voting. Stop saying, "We have to take our country back." BUT FIRST, TAKE DOWN THAT HIDEOUS SYMBOL OF THIS COUNTRY's RACIST PAST. NOW!

Then I might believe your tears were real.

Hello,

The matter of flying the confederate flag at the South Carolina Statehouse is not addressed in the US Flag Code (web link below), but no matter how anyone feels about flying the Confederate flag at half-mast due to the church shootings yesterday in Charleston, it seems inappropriate to fly the Confederate flag higher than the US flag. I hope the confederate flag is lowered as a sign of respect and mourning for those killed, but if not for that reason, I hope you will encourage whoever make decisions about this to lower the flag as a sign of respect for the US flag. I have also sent this to my representatives at the StateHouse, Senator Wes Hayes and Rep. Gary Simrill. Thank you.

Ginny [REDACTED]

The US Flag code, while not a matter of enforceable law, is available at this website:
<http://www.senate.gov/reference/resources/pdf/RL30243.pdf>

The quotes below are from the code.

"The Flag Code does not prescribe any penalties for non-compliance nor does it include enforcement provisions; rather the Code functions simply as a guide to be voluntarily followed by civilians and civilian groups."

"§ 7. Position and Manner of Display.

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

Governor Haley,

I would like to offer my condolences for the heart-break that the entire State is experiencing now. I know it is difficult for you to comfort the people during this time, but I would like to offer a suggestion that may serve as the most meaningful thing you can do for all the people of the State. This may be the time to immediately remove the Confederate flag from the State House grounds by Executive Order. Direct the Commander of the State Highway Patrol, Colonel Michael Oliver, to bring the flag down with his own hand. The time has come to put this painful past behind us.

Thank you for your time and attention, and may God be with you and the State at this difficult time.

Respectfully,

Michael [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley,

In the speech you gave today addressing the terroristic and hate-filled Charleston shootings, you stated, "We have some grieving to do, and we've got some pain we have to go through."

Please realize that by continuing to permit the confederate flag to wave in South Carolina, you are reinforcing the pain and grief caused by a lifetime of racial repression and exploitation of the black community.

Especially in light of recent events, I respectfully request that you do the right thing, and order the removal of the flag from all state buildings and publications.

At a time like this, words crafted from the pen of your speech writer sound nice, but by taking this action, you can show the people of your state -- and most especially the nine victims' families and friends who are shocked and grieving -- that you respect them and you'll take appropriate actions to correct this enormous insult.

Gov. Haley,

If you are truly concerned about the hate crime that just occurred in your state, then you will have the confederate flag removed from the state house as it represents hatred of African Americans and is truly insulting to them. You also need legislation against hate crimes in your state (SC is one of only 5 states without it!). This is 2015 for heavens sake! Not 1861! Many people in America see SC as one of the most regressive states in the country. There needs to be more than meaningless rhetoric from you. There needs to be action!

The optics are bad. Flying the confederate flag at half staff to (dis)honor the Charleston victims! It is time for the flag to come down. We can argue all day and all night about what the flag represents. But the fact is, it is too often used as an ugly symbol by whites who don't like blacks (or others of color) at a time when our state desperately needs to heal racial divisions and racial wounds.

Dear Governor,

Please have the confederate flag that is flying outside your office in the Capitol building down. It is a symbol of hatred for many. Both those who hate and those who are hated. It is offensive and has no place in a democratic society that represents ALL of it's tax paying citizens. That flag is a symbol that inspires hate and causes tragedies like the the shooting in Charleston last night. Please do the right thing. Honor the dead and stop purveying hate that causes death.

Thank you,

Dear Governor Haley,

I have always been deeply ashamed by our state's continued use of the Confederate flag, but never more than today when, in the wake of the terrible hate crime in Charleston in which 9 South Carolina citizens were killed for being black, the Confederate flag was flown high even as the US and SC flags were lowered to half mast. That flag symbolizes our state's treasonous past and a continued commitment to a poisonous and murderous racial ideology that spawned last night's (and so many other) murders. Governor Haley, that flag has got to come down. There is no place for it in a fair and decent world. Please have the courage, the wisdom, and the insight to take it down.

Thank you.

Dear Governor Haley: 1. Please take steps to make SC the greatest state in the nation, by changing the gun laws. Let's be the leaders for a change instead of always being on the bottom of every list. Get rid of guns in this state. I am not against true hunters, who have respect for their shot guns and rifles; but I am against everyone being allowed to purchase and carry a hand gun and to purchase assault weapons, which are never necessary (except by the military); it always leads to tragedy. 2. I also request that the confederate flag be removed from the State Capital grounds. It is offensive to every South Carolinian. 3. Then (and perhaps this should be top on your list) start listening to all the people of South Carolina, not just the wealthy and/or Republicans, and make decisions that benefit all South Carolinians. Let's treat every law abiding citizen of this state equal. Thank you.

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for your kind, warm, heart-felt words and genuine expression regarding the recent tragedy in Charleston, S.C. As a native of South Carolina who now resides in the San Francisco Bay Area, I was brought up in the AME Church and was brought to tears upon the news of this event. It also pains me to discover that the Confederate Flag still flies on the S.C. State Capital grounds, a symbol of hate, greed, divisiveness, white supremacy, slavery and oppression of African-American people. You can further promote the healing and unification of our beautiful state and our nation, as a whole, by putting forth a referendum to have it removed, permanently. Many South Carolinians are good, loving, Godly people. This will help restore the souls of many and unify us across a multitude of ethnicities, religious and culturally diverse groups. This will make me even prouder of your leadership and to be from this great state. I want to thank you, the political members and the law enforcement division for doing an outstanding job over the past few months, especially regarding the two events in Charleston.

Thank you for your time,

Dear Governor Haley,

In light of the recent shooting in Charleston and the fact that it seemed racially motivated, please take the Confederate flag down for just one day--or even two--to show the state's mourning for those whose lives were taken. Our nation's and state's flag at half-mast are good and proper, but right now, the media is excoriating our state for leaving it up during such a sensitive and painful time--and they are right. Still, that's not the reason to take it down. The temporary removal of the Confederate flag will send a strong message that this kind of racial targeting is NOT tolerated in South Carolina. It is especially pertinent when you consider that one of the victims was a state senator.

Please, Governor Haley, as a citizen of South Carolina, I ask you to take this bold measure and order the Stars and Bars set aside for a short time. Let the nation and the world know we are moving beyond our history when face with a tragedy of this magnitude.

Thank you,

Mrs. Linda D. [REDACTED]

I read via twitter a few minutes ago that the Confederate flag is flying at full staff at the state capital today. If this is true, and I pray that it isn't, it represents an almost criminal insensitivity to the state of South Carolina's African-American population. That flag is and has always been an affront to them, but if it MUST fly, it should be lowered to half-mast in respect to those murdered in Charleston last night, and in respect of their families.

If the Confederate flag is flying at full staff, please lower it to half-mast IMMEDIATELY. South Carolina race relations are at a critical juncture, and the state's leadership must show sensitivity to the legitimate concerns of its citizens.

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

Dear Ms. Haley,

I see that the Confederate flag which flies outside at the state house as part of the Civil War memorial flies today at full mast. I am aware of the importance of the war in not just broader American history, but specifically in South Carolina's history and so have no concern that a memorial stands before the house. The Confederate flag, however, is symbol of not just secession and treason, but also the reasons behind that secession, i.e. the right to continue holding black men, women, and children in bondage. While some have argued that it stands for resistance to tyranny and the call to states' rights and that it is inclusive of all regardless of race, the choice to leave it at full mast today makes it clear to me and to quite a few other South Carolinians and Americans, that its real meaning is hatred. If it cannot be lowered at half-mast to reflect the tragedy facing South Carolina's own and the equally important historical AME church affected, then it has revealed its true meaning and as such must be removed from the state house grounds. I appeal to you both as a resident of South Carolina, a voter, and as a human being who feels greatly for those affected. It is time to do what is right. Retire the flag from the memorial.

Best,
 Dr. Cassandra L. [REDACTED]

 <MSG>

Please tell me why you feel it is appropriate to fly the flag of the southern Confederacy, a failed insurrection against the United States that sought to uphold as just and proper the principle that one individual may own another individual as property. Please explain why the flag continues to fly today, after an individual who appears to have been motivated by racial hatred, the same hatred that the confederate flag embodies and incites, murdered nine innocent people in a church. Are you completely morally bankrupt and devoid of a soul? Or do you simply not understand that the flag is a symbol of hatred, treason, violence, and above all, slavery. I am disgusted by the presence of that flag, and never, ever, will visit your state as long as it flies. I will encourage everyone I know to boycott South Carolina.

You should be ashamed of yourself. Please take a moment for serious, critical reflection, and ask yourself whether it is appropriate that the flag continue to fly, especially after yesterday's horrific events.

Hello,

I'd like to respectfully ask the Governor to stop flying the Confederate Flag over the State House. After what happened with the shooting this week it is an absolute travesty! No, it was a travesty before, now it is a disgrace. You are flying an emblem of rebellion and racism and you wonder how a mass shooting like this can happen in your state. I am from Virginia originally and grew up in a Civil War town - but even I think it is ENTIRELY INAPPROPRIATE to fly this flag, especially now. It stinks of racism and is callous in the extreme to the African American population of your state. Shame on you.

Sincerely,
Eve [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I heard that you were crying on the news a few minutes ago.
 I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people like me, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did to those poor people who welcomed him as Jesus would have.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

Please make a bold statement that we must move past any trappings of institutionalized bigotry and remove the Confederate flag from all government buildings. I understand that it was a symbol of many other things, but it is most recognized as the symbol of slavery .

What will it take Governor Haley? What is it going to take for you to understand the sick, demented, racist hatred that the CONFEDERATE FLAG illustrates? Do you truly understand the racist history that the murdering of these 9 innocent people shows? If you have any ounce of a heart in your body and you truly care about "ALL" the people of SC, TAKE THE FLAG DOWN and have the guts to address the racist policies of your Republican Party. However, I know that none of the above will happen because you don't have the intestinal fortitude to go against what you full well know is right! Your lack of leadership will only lead to more RACISTS incidents like this because you really and truly don't give a damn!

Dear Madam Governor Nikki Haley,

As I know this is a turbulent time for you and the State, I felt compelled to write you from New York City to express my deep concern for all the citizens in South Carolina. Additionally, my family has roots in the great State with still more living in many cities. In fact, my family celebrated its family reunion in Charleston, South Carolina. We had a fine time. It was overshadowed when we visited the State House and saw the Confederate Flag on the grounds and the African American Monument located near the rear of the site. It goes without saying that New York has its problems and so goes the nation and now it lies on your doorstep, albeit all of our doorsteps. I hope and pray that two things happen in the great state of South Carolina. First, the Flag is removed as it is a reminder to the black community of the brutality of racism and slavery. Second, that the African American monument be moved toward the front of the State House in honor of the victims and their families. To do so would be a fitting symbol and usher in a climate that radiates from the Governor's office. My prayers are with you as you do your very best to guide the state through this terrorist act.

Sincerely,

Allen M. [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

Symbols matter. The young man taken into custody for the ghastly shooting last night believed so. He wore a jacket with the apartheid era South Africa flag and white rule Rhodesia flag and his front decorative license plate has confederate states flags. He spoke in terms commonly associated with white supremacy, white fear of blacks and at this juncture one expects a jury will likely convict him of an infamous hate crime.

Meanwhile, the confederate flag still flies on the state grounds. A symbol, a heritage, of secession, treason and yes, hate. It may win a few cheap votes in this state, but you're not running for governor anymore. Why pander to a group which includes racists and folks who call you a raghead? Why tolerate an object the NCAA has to do contortions around its own rules so that USC Women's basketball can host NCAA tournament games?

This state has a rich history with or without the flag flying? Why fly it?

Candidly and respectfully,
 Adam [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, Thank you for your support to the faith based community.
In light of the hate that exists in our state. Please, please take down the Confederate Flag on top of the dome.
I am sure that you will agree, that is not who we are.

Dear Governor Haley:

I join my fellow South Carolinians in grieving the recent church shooting in Charleston. It is truly a sad day for our state and for our nation.

Now is the time for the government of South Carolina to take action to help prevent future violence. Now is the time for our state's representatives to take a public stand against hate crimes and against violence.

Please begin by removing the Confederate flag from our State House. This symbol sends the wrong message about what South Carolina values. I am appalled that we continue to fly a flag that represents a period of our history marked by slavery. For the majority of people, this symbol continues to reflect white supremacy and hate crimes, and thus should be removed immediately from any governmental property.

Also, please take this occasion to re-examine South Carolina's gun policies. We need to implement stronger policies aimed at reducing the number of gun deaths in our state. We must put stronger barriers in place to obtaining fire arms, and help reduce the "culture of violence" that is so prevalent in our region.

As a Baptist minister and chaplain, as a wife, sister, and daughter, and as a white person who has grown up in a racist country and who is trying to do and be better, I implore the state government to act now to end hate crimes and gun violence.

Thank you for representing my interests and opinions. I hope what happened in Charleston will never happen again, and that South Carolina's government can take this occasion to act.

Sincerely,

Rev. Lynn [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Nikki Haley,

The petition states:

"Symbols of hate and division have no place in our government. It's akin to flying the Union Jack in America after our victory in the Revolutionary War or having the swastika fly in Germany following WWII. Time to stand up for what's right and take down the Confederate Flag!"

You go on TV and shed tears for the African-American people who were killed in yet another domestic terrorist attack on our black citizens with the Confederate flag flying at your state capitol.

YOU ARE PART OF THE PROBLEM.

As a 71 year old white woman, I don't want your tears. I want you to be as angry as I am. This violence against our African-American citizens has to stop.

As Governor, you could take a very important first step: REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG from your Capitol. It's offensive to me, our African-American citizens and our Country.

Do something REAL...your tears are offensive.

Will you actually remove the flag of a nation that went to war with America from the South Carolina capitol? Maybe just lower it to half-staff? This is pathetic. The Confederate flag was the flag of a nation that fought OUR country, the United States, on the premise of slavery. I cannot believe you support and advocate such a message. I will not be vacationing in SC nor will I use any SC companies.

 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

The families and communities affected by last night's murders at Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church need a lot more than just our love and prayers right now. It is now your civic and moral duty as governor to require the S.C. police dept to provide round-the-clock protection by standing guard over its historically black churches, to ensure that they catch and prosecute the killer, to investigate the killings as a hate crime and prosecute to the fullest extent of the law, to forbid known white supremacists and members of known hate groups from owning guns, and to immediately remove the confederate flag from statehouse grounds to show that the state really has "moved beyond those days" (as an October 2014 Salon.com article quoted you as saying in your defense of keeping the confederate flag on statehouse grounds). Otherwise, the state sends the message that last night's murders were not an anomalous act of violence but a product of an institutionally racist state culture in which black lives don't really matter.

The nation and the world are watching South Carolina right now, in mourning and in outrage. We know that nothing can change the past and bring those 9 beautiful, full, unique, and irreplaceable lives back to life. But we will honor these senseless losses not only through prayer but by demanding justice and change in South Carolina. The whole world is watching you right now. You must see to it that this does not happen again, and that the state does not appear to sanction white supremacists' murders of black citizens.

Sincerely,

Deborah [REDACTED]

Can you not see what your flying this flag says to your state population? Can you not see what it says to the entire World? I'll tell you what it says - ignorance, racism, condoning of hate, and damned near condoning of murder. Remove it, burn it, whatever you need to do. Come up with a new one, something that includes people, not an ugly reminder of an ugly past. I would think an immigrant to the US, who is not lily white, could perhaps see that, but you are a Repugnant, so seeing anything that you don't want to see, or are asked not to, is impossible for you. But know this - the world sees it, and questions the willful ignorance of it. That is your state legacy now.

I am white, but I am in mourning for the members of the AME church shooting. Such an awful waste of some very good people. But if South Carolina does not honor them and stand up for the meaning of their lives by marking their murders with a flag at half-mast, then I will KNOW, along with everyone else in America, the South Carolina does not value their black citizens. You can lie about making it harder for black people to vote, but you cannot lie about acknowledging the murderous rage of that your racist that caused these deaths.
