Winter 2015

Dear Elected Official,

American Mothers continues to serve as a constant reminder of the importance of mothers and the influence they have at home, at work and in the world. Enclosed you will find the 2015 winter edition of the American Mother which includes inspirational stories about mothers across the country, an educational article by Henry Winkler, as well as informative articles that raise awareness on the global epidemic of human trafficking.

American Mothers has a long history honoring mothers nationally and being recognized by national, state and local leaders. As the official sponsor of Mother's Day, American Mothers honored the first National Mother of the Year in 1935. This award was presented by First Lady Sarah Delano Roosevelt in 1935 at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City. Every year since then, American Mothers has named a remarkable mother from nominees among the 50 states, District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for this important honor. Many outstanding individuals throughout America have served as officers, leaders, members and supporters of this organization such as First Lady Sarah Delano Roosevelt, J.C. Penny, First Lady Mamie Eisenhower, Phyllis Marriott and the Honorable Lindy Boggs and the Honorable Hillary Rodham Clinton. American Mothers is an inter-faith, non-political, non-profit organization that continues to recognize the invaluable contribution mothers make to the future success and happiness of children and society. Its purpose is exclusively charitable. The national headquarters is located in Washington D.C.

On behalf of American Mothers, I invite you to nominate outstanding women in your state to be honored by American Mothers. Please visit our website at www.americanmothers.org or contact, Andrea Ball, AMI Executive Director at andrea@americanmothers.org. Nominations are accepted annually from Mother's Day to November 15th at www.AmericanMothers.org.

We hope you enjoy this edition of The American Mother magazine and share it with your staff. Additionally, you will find the 2015 National Conference insert. This event held annually in Washington DC will be at the Willard Hotel, April 23-26th, 2015. This year's conference theme, Mothers Eyes on the World, will feature Robin McGraw (New York Times bestselling author and Dr. Phil's wife!) as our Keynote speaker, Matt Osborne with Operation Underground Railroad and Nancy Rivard with Airline Ambassadors along with our 2014 National Mother and Young Mother of the Year!

Sincerely,

Andrea Ball
