Try telling that to the 150 Christians who were kidnapped 2 days ago, and will most likely die by beheading in the name of Allah, THAT religion. You better wake up. Covering up one's face is a threat, no matter what religion and I have a fundamental right to identify anyone who poses a threat to me or my family. I will be forwarding your letter to the Sun News and the Governor office as promised.

Sincerely,
Dolores A. Brittain

Dear Dolores,

Thank you for taking the time to share your concerns. I am sorry to hear that you felt uncomfortable while shopping at the Goodwill store in Little River. However, Burqa's are an expression of one's Religious beliefs and do not present an actual threat to the fundamental rights and freedoms of others who may shop in our stores.

We sincerely appreciate your past patronage and hope that you will continue to support our mission by shopping and donating to Goodwill. Over 90% of all mission revenues support employment and training services for people with disabilities and other barriers to gainful employment.

All the best,
Tina

Subject: BURKA'S!

Dear Tina,

Greetings. I am an avid shopper at the goodwill stores in all of Horry County SC. The other day I was at the Little River branch on Hwy. 9 and a women with a full burka entered you establishment. I immediately felt threatened. If you are going to put up signs telling law abiding tax paying citizens that they can not carry their concealed guns into your store, then you better also post that a persons face must be fully revealed. This is disturbing to say the least. I spend on the average 500.00 a month and if something isn't done about this I will withdraw from shopping with you all together. I'm not joking about the severity of this issue and I will go further with it if I don't get a satisfactory response. I am forwarding this letter to the Sun News and will keep them updated. I am also going to be contacting attorneys to see if I need to file a discrimination case; in the event that action is not taken.

Sincerely,

Dolores A. Brittain
