Tyler,

Thanks for your email. I have checked Governor Haley's availability to meet, and regrettably the Governor's schedule is very tight between now and the end of November. Thank you for reaching out, but the Governor's schedule will not permit for her to participate in this interview. Thank you for your understanding, and please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Nicole,

I talked to Chaney Adams as well about the interview and she said she would get back to you about scheduling it. I told her the dates that we wouldn't be available, but I also wanted to send them to you:

September 22nd
September 23rd
September 26th
September 28th
October 4th

Other than those dates, we are generally free to drive down to Columbia Mondays-Thursdays. We could be there by around 5:00 at the earliest (we finish our classes at 3:30, so that gives us an hour and a half to get there). Leslie and I are pretty flexible about our scheduling and we would be able to do whatever is necessary on our end to make this a success. I've also included the questions we'd like to ask Governor Haley:

Political Questions

1. How did you get your start in South Carolina politics?
2. What are your goals for the upcoming legislative session?
3. What is the most frustrating part of getting laws passed through the legislature?
4. Do you feel as though your experience in the legislature helps you when communicating with senators and representatives?
5. What is the most challenging aspect of being governor of South Carolina?
6. What is an accomplishment of your administration that you are proud of ?

Personal Questions

1. What is something about you that not many people know?
2. Who is someone that inspires you?
3. What are some of your favorite things about South Carolina?
4. When did you first realize that you were a conservative?
5. What would your message be to younger voters who are at times hesitant to get involved in politics due to the established nature of the system?

If you have any other questions, please let me know. Thank you for all your help!
