Governor Nikki Haley

1205 Pendleton St.

Columbia, SC 29901

Dear Governor Haley,

Hello, my name is Whitney Loomis (Miss Charleston, National American Miss 2016/2017), and I am 9 years old and in the 5th grade. I come from the sunny city of Charleston, South Carolina.

When I grow up, what will make happy is becoming a neurosurgeon, specializing in traumatic brain injuries like my dad suffers from. I also aspire to become President of the United States of America in 2014, changing the way military and veterans are represented.

I have been working on a community project of helping those less fortunate with my sister Shyann. We have 100 bags donated to us from Publix, and donations from around the city that we fill as essential supplies for the less fortunate population here in Charleston. We will begin handing these out soon.

It is also an important mission of mine and my sister Shyann, to educate young people that the law enforcement officers are here to "help not hurt", and to promote fire safety education as well.

We also started our own fund raising opportunity to help pay for our extracurricular activities in which we make dog leashes and collars. We donate a portion of the proceeds back to Freedom Fur (service dogs for veterans). This is where my dad's service dog came from. We want to spread awareness for our veterans, their healthcare, and for military and their families. →

I know this is a lot coming from a year, I did skip the 2nd grade. I would love to meet with you and my sister Shyan to discuss further improvements for our great City of Charleston, but also, our incredible State of South Carolina.

I know you have a lot on your plate, but I would love in a few minutes of your time. I am term Trump all the delays and I believe that change starts now.

If we don't positively change our lives now, we cannot change our future.

My motto is "positivity produces positivity".

Thank you for your time. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Blessings to you,

Whitney Alexis Loomis
