Joseph Anderson Its not nearly as important how many years a person has lived, or how many miles a person has hiked, but rather how many people are glad he did. I am grateful that our paths crossed. The Gray & Green is not an easy burden to carry. You always made it seem so easy. Nature never betrays those that love her... Congratulations and thank you for what you do!

Aaron Bryant Congratulations Elliott!! We are always so happy to see you when we are hiking up at Jones Gap...you are favorite friendly ranger. Always helpful and kind!! You definitely deserve this award for you selfless service. ~The Bryant clan (Aaron, Carrie, Caleb, Dylan and Annabelle 🐕and Buster 🐕)

Layla Elizabeth Manning We love Ranger Elliott! When my son was 7 years old he achieved his Level 3 Junior Ranger badge with Ranger Elliott's help. He led a special nature walk for us so that Logan could finish his last requirement. Logan was Jones Gap's first ever Level 3 Jr Ranger, so they didn't have all of his gear for him but they arranged for it to be waiting at our cabin at Table Rock by the time we made it back that evening. My son took a celebratory picture with him and we mailed him a copy. Two years later we were back at Jones Gap and found Elliott to say hi. He remembered my son b/c he'd had that picture on his fridge for two years!! This is their second picture to commemorate it.

Congratulations, Ranger Elliott!

Randy DePrince Congratulations Elliott! We saw you today working on the new kiosk and parking area at Raven Cliff. Jones Gap has been our favorite park for 15 years and we hike there often. We always count it a lucky day if we encounter you there. I remember one instance when we were hiking in the ice and snow and you took the time to show us the crampons/microspikes that go over hiking boots on the internet. Your love for the park always shines through when you talk about nature. Thank you for all you do! Randy, Amy, and Zelda (dog).
