It is the position of Christians for Life and Liberty that this call by these so-called "conservative leaders" to "Confirm Brett Kavanaugh" is extremely misguided, and is yet another example of the false leadership demonstrated by a number (not all) of the influential members of the Romish / ecumenical Council for National Policy (CNP).

[Is CAP platform for CNP members?] Fwd: CAP Memo - Confirm Brett Kavanaugh

The July 18 e-mail below sent as from the "Conservative Action Project (CAP)" looks like it may actually just be a platform for a number of influential leaders (not necessarily all) in the Romish/ecumenical  Council for National Policy (CNP) crowd.

 Romish/ecumenical "conservative" [un-Biblical  mix of Christians and non-Christians] Council for National Policy (CNP)

 Ephesians 5:11-13; 2 Corinthians 6:14-18; Revelation 18:4; 1 Corinthians 15:33; Psalm 1:1; 1 Corinthians 5:6 / Galatians 5:9; James 4:4; 2 John 9-11; 1 Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 3:8 [the ends do not justify the means]; 2 Corinthians 11:3,4; 1 John 2:22,23; John 5:23, KJV. The CNP includes/has included some members of Rome's Jesuit-Vatican New World Order, treasonous, Jesuit - controlled, Council on Foreign Relations (CFR); some Freemasons; and some who outright reject Jesus Christ as the Messiah.

As a Christian pro-life ministry, it is the position of Christians for Life and Liberty (CLL), those of the Romish/ecumenical "pro-life" incrementalist establishment below (and others also, especially such as NRLC) are part of the problem in actually ENDING child-murder by "abortion" in the United States, instead of perpetually, incrementally, "regulating" child-murder.

Incrementalism is NOT Justice for the preborn.

'For the Murdered Unborn, Incrementalism is Not Justice'

<http://christiansforpersonhood.com/index.php/2017/04/11/for-the-murdered-unborn-incrementalism-is-not-justice/>

Roman Catholic "leaders" and/or Roman Catholic/ecumenical "incrementalist" child-murder "regulation" organizations such as these below are part of the PROBLEM not the solution to ENDING child-murder in America. NONE of these below are advocating for passage of States' Personhood legislation now, and in fact the Senior Counsel of AUL, Clarke Forsythe has publicly opposed States' Personhood legislation in published writing.

Are ANY of these organizations below even supporting principled FEDERAL Personhood legislation [e.g., HR 586 (www.Congress.gov)] ?

Not surprising that many folks associated with the Romish/ecumenical CNP would endorse Roman Catholic, JESUIT-educated, JESUIT-Georgetown University connected, Washington JESUIT Academy director Brett Kavanaugh.

However Fox's Judge Napolitano was right, Kavanaugh is a swamp pick.

Is it either great blindness on the part of the people below, or great ignorance, or just following the wrong leadership (Isaiah 3:12, KJV), or for some, is it pursuit of a Rome-centric worldview causing these below to endorse Kavanaugh ?

We've been down this road before over the last 37 years since 1981; with Reagan -appointee pro-"abortion", pro-sodomy

"If confirmed to the D.C. Circuit, I would follow Roe v. Wade faithfully and fully. That would be binding precedent of the court," Kavanaugh said, referring to the legal principle of stare decisis. "It's been decided by the Supreme Court."

Brett Kavanaugh is involved with the ONGOING COVER-UP of the murder of deputy White House counsel Vince Foster 25 years ago.

"President Trump broke his campaign promise to pro-lifers when he nominated Judge Brett Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court."

"Ricardo Davis of Georgia Right to Life calls Kavanaugh's pro-abortion position "morally reprehensible" and urges pro-lifers and conservatives to demand Kavanaugh's withdrawal and for Trump to replace him with a real pro-life nominee such as Amy Coney Barrett."

From Christians for Life and Liberty:

Steve Lefemine, director

Judge Amy Barrett, Roman Catholic, has rightly expressed the US Constitution should be followed instead of bad precedent. If Judge Raymond Kethledge, an evangelical Christian, has a like view, i.e., to follow the US Constitution first, not bad precedent, then Raymond Kethledge may be the judge for President Trump to nominate upon the needful withdrawal of the fatally flawed Kavanaugh nomination.

Presently there are 5 Roman Catholics, 3 followers of Judaism, and Romanist/Episcopalian/Jesuit-educated Gorsuch on the US Supreme Court.

Question : In a nation of approximately 325 million people, with almost half Protestants (46.5%):

Why are there no clearly Christian Protestant, Evangelical, or Baptist Justices on the US Supreme Court !?

[Re: Amy Coney Barrett:]

"In her academic writing, she has written somewhat dismissively of the doctrine of respecting the Supreme Court's precedents

- a doctrine known as stare decisis. "There is little reason to think that reversals [of past decisions] would do much damage" to the court's reputation, she wrote. "I tend to agree with those who say that a justice's duty is to the Constitution" rather than to a precedent she thinks is clearly in conflict with it."

Does Raymond Kethledge rightly have the same understanding of the proper role of stare decisis as does apparently Amy Coney Barrett, i.e., that the legal principle of stare decisis is subordinate to the primary responsibility of a judge to be faithful to the WRITTEN TEXT of the United States Constitution ?

If so, President Trump, then Raymond Kethledge may be your man for appointment to the United States Supreme Court.

US SENATORS, SAY "NO" TO BRETT KAVANAUGH !

PLEASE CALL YOUR US SENATORS AND URGE THEM TO SAY 'NO' TO BRETT KAVANAUGH

From CLL :

"Stare Decisis" is a legal term, a legal principle, to stand by precedent (that is, normally).

It is NOT primary. It does not trump fidelity to the written text of the United States Constitution.

It does not trump adherence to the Oath of Office taken by each United States Supreme Court Justice to uphold the United States Constitution (written text).

The Oath of Office of a United States Supreme Court Justice is NOT to uphold stare decisis ;

The Oath of Office of a United States Supreme Court Justice is to uphold the United States Constitution (written text) !!!

If a SCOTUS Opinion is abominable, evil, immoral, and unconstitutional (e.g., Roe, and Obergefell), it should be ignored as void.

Excerpt from Article VI., U.S. Constitution

Marbury vs. Madison (1803)

<https://caselaw.findlaw.com/us-supreme-court/5/137.html>

"... an act of the legislature, repugnant to the constitution, is void." "... a law repugnant to the constitution is void; and... courts, as well as other departments, are bound by that instrument."

The United States Supreme Court is "bound by that instrument", i.e., the United States Constitution.

The United States Constitution is NOT whatever the Justices say it is.
The United States Constitution is what the WRITTEN TEXT says it is !!!

Federal Judiciary Oaths

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Oath_of_office#Federal_Judiciary_Oaths

In the United States, federal judges are required to take two oaths. The second is the same oath that members of Congress take:

[Emphasis added]

I, (name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter.

Subject: CAP Memo - Confirm Brett Kavanaugh

The Conservative Action Project just released a Memo for the Movement signed by more than 100 conservative leaders entitled "Confirm Brett Kavanaugh." Feel free to view this and other memos on our WEBSITE . A PDF version of this memo can be found HERE . Signatures are still being collected and we will release updated versions of this memo, as necessary. If you want to join the other movement leaders in this effort, please CLICK HERE. We encourage all leaders to move the memo directly out to their organizations' members to inform and provide them with principled policy statements or to use the information in another form. The material contained in the Memos provides important information and we are interested in it being shared widely to have a more well-informed citizenry.

Project Conservative Action

The Conservative Action Project (CAP) was founded in 2008 by many conservative leaders with former Attorney General Edwin Meese III serving as the Founding Chairman. CAP is currently chaired by Mr. Alfred S. Regnery and is designed to facilitate conservative leaders working together on behalf of common goals. Participants include the CEOs of over 100 organizations representing all major elements of the conservative movement-economic, social and national security.

Vri600Memo for the Movement

Confirm Brett Kavanaugh

July 18, 2018

Washington, DC

Vri600We strongly endorse the nomination of the Honorable Brett Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court of the United States and urge the Senate to confirm him with haste.

Conservatives believe the United States Constitution is the ultimate authority for the interpretation of American law. Conservatives therefore enthusiastically agreed with the commitment by candidate Trump, and now-President Trump, that appointees to the Supreme Court of the United States should be committed to applying the Constitution to cases that come before the Court.

Vri600By nominating Judge Brett Kavanaugh for the Supreme Court, President Trump chose a candidate whose attributes have been described as "very much in the mold of Justice Scalia," who was committed to applying and interpreting the Constitution as written.

Throughout his career on the bench, Judge Kavanaugh's opinions have reflected thoughtful, precise and clear language in support of the original intent of the Constitution, the separation of powers, federalism, religious freedom, political speech rights guaranteed by the First Amendment, and constitutional limitations on the expansion of the administrative state.

Judge Kavanaugh clearly set forth his judicial philosophy when he wrote, "The judge's job is to interpret the law, not to make the law or make policy. So read the words of the statute as written. Read the text of the Constitution as written, mindful of history and tradition. Don't make up new constitutional rights that are not in the text of the Constitution. Don't shy away from enforcing constitutional rights that are in the text of the Constitution."

Judge Kavanaugh's credentials are impeccable and rival those of sitting justices - a degree from Yale Law School; clerkships with three federal judges; twelve years as a sitting Federal Court of Appeals Judge, and time spent in other significant roles of public service. He is certainly qualified.

The United States Senate should carry out its Constitutional role in a timely manner. President Trump's nominee merits the timely advice and consent of the Senate so that the Supreme Court will have a full complement of nine sitting justices when the next term of the Court begins on October 1, 2018.
