Hayden,

I saw you called me the other day, and when I tried to call you back, my cell phone rang. It just occurred to me yesterday afternoon that you may have hit the “Forward On” button on your phone (I used to have the phone you use a while back, and I guess it’s still programmed to forward to my cell phone). Anyhow, to fix the problem, try lifting the receiver and dialing #2. That should fix it.
