Thank you. I just sent another confirmation to Gray and added you. You have exactly what he was sent about his visit.

You won't get any of the communications from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions but this will go thru regular mail.

Thanks again, we look forward to greeting them on 11/21.

Denise

No problem. Gray's cell phone is [REDACTED].
Please make sure I am sent all communications, as well.
Thank you,
Katherine

Glad to help. I would still like a phone number for Gray, we are creating a communications record for him w/l the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. He is important to you and therefore important to us and an accurate record of his information helps us tailor the communications steam to him. Once I have this, I'll send an email confirmation to him (and you but will delete your information after this to avoid you from getting additional communications from us), detailing directions and parking information. Please encourage the family to use our email confirmation over any phone or car GPS, which we have found to be notoriously incorrect.

Thanks again!

Denise

It will be a busy day leading up to Thanksgiving but each tour will not involve more than 20 people, i.e. about 4 – 5 families. Everyone learns from each other and the questions they ask really enhance the entire tour experience. We even have folks who find roommates on the tour.

Denise,
Thank you for the call. I will follow up asap.
How many people do you expect for the 2:00pm tour?
Thank you,
Katherine

Subject: Grayson Black's Visit for 11/21

Thanks for your time this morning. We are so excited that Grayson wants to visit USC and I'm glad to help. A few additional pieces of information:

Grayson's date of birth
A parent email and phone number, if possible.

At this point I am holding space for 4 people on a 2 pm tour on 11/21. The tour guide is from Columbia and an excellent student in the Moore School of Business. I'd like for the Blake's to arrive around 1:30 pm and if I could have an email address for one parent, I will send a complete confirmation with directions and parking information to both emails.

Many thanks in advance for your help! Have a wonderful weekend.
