The Columbia Museum of Art Hosts Annual

"Spooktacular Night at the CMA" Family Halloween Party

Saturday, October 25, 2014

WHAT:

The Columbia Museum of Art hosts a ghoulishly good time at the fourth annual "Spooktacular Night at the CMA" family fun event. As darkness falls, the Museum transforms with ghosts, bats, pumpkins, art stations, sweet treats, and more! Make sure to wear your costume as you embark on a spooky gallery tour and see the Norman Rockwell: Behind the Camera exhibition. Visit the Mad Scientist's Laboratory as he conducts some exciting experiments. And at the stroke of 7:00, enjoy a performance by the band Lunch Money. Mast General Store will be here with old-fashioned candy treats. Grab dinner with Wurst Wagon on the Plaza. Sponsored by the City of Forest Acres and the Junior League of Columbia.

WHEN:

Saturday, October 25, 2014

5:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Admission is free with a canned good donation to Harvest Hope Food Bank.

WHERE:

Columbia Museum of Art

1515 Main Street

About the CMA

The Columbia Museum of Art is a charitable nonprofit organization dedicated to lifelong learning and community enrichment for all. Located in the heart of downtown Columbia, SC, CMA ranks among the leading art institutions in the country and is distinguished by its innovative exhibitions and creative educational programs. At the heart of the CMA and its programs is its collection, which encompasses nearly 7,000 works and spans thousands of years of history, representing a full range of world cultures. Established in 1950, the CMA now welcomes more than 135,000 visitors annually and is a catalyst for community creativity, engaging people of all ages and backgrounds with a diverse spectrum of programming, from exhibitions and lectures to concerts, which appeal to a wide range of visitors and students. It is the recipient of a National Art Education Association award for its contributions to arts education and an Elizabeth O'Neill Verner Governor's Award for the Arts for outstanding contributions to the arts in South Carolina.
