Hello, I was just wondering if you could answer a question, I submitted 4 photos to your contest but only two of them are showing up. Does it take a certain amount of time for them to show? The one I submitted yesterday was posted to my facebook page with the notice that it had been submitted, but it is not showing up in the gallery of photos. Any help with this problem would be appreciated. Thank you, Patricia

Hi and thanks for entering your photos. Photos do not show up until they are approved. Can you check the gallery again and see if you see all of the photos? Please let me know!
