RE: Resignation from Magistrate Position

Dear Governor Haley, Senator Davis, and Director Frierson,

I will not be able to thank you enough for granting me an appointment as a Beaufort County Magistrate in March 2014. It has been my absolute pleasure and honor to serve my State and Community in this capacity for the last two years.

However, pursuant to Rule 501, Canon 5 governing Judicial Conduct, I must now resign my position as a Magistrate for Beaufort County effective immediately. I am filing to be a candidate for election for the position of Solicitor of the 14th Judicial Circuit. I am extremely excited about this new opportunity for service and hope to work with you all again from this new position.

Thank you again for the trust and responsibility you bestowed upon me. I wish you all the best in your own amazing careers and endeavors.

Sincerely,

Angela McCall-Tanner

Chief Magistrate, Beaufort County
