Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate:

It is with the greatest enthusiasm and sincerity that I recommend Twana N. Burris to you as an Ethics Board Committee Person. I have known Twana most of her life. We grew up a few streets away from one another in the same neighborhood. Being many years older than Twana, I was able to watch her grow up with my younger brother and have looked at her in many ways as a younger sister, especially now that she has entered the legal profession.

I have always observed her to be respectful of others, forthright in her dealings, and careful in expressing her opinions. She makes sure that the positions that she takes on various issues are thoughtful, well-reasoned opinions. She cares about making a difference for other people and doesn't just stop at lip service.

It is that thoughtfulness and concern for others that I see reflected not only in the way she handles her clients' cases, but also in her community involvement. She has served others in various capacities: as the Coordinator of the Youth Oratorical Competition, "Righteousness Exalteth a Nation," for 9th through 12th grade students at Gethsemane Baptist Church; as a part of the Sleighbell Network for the United Way's Volunteer Toy Drive in York County; as a speaker at area churches for Literacy Center of the Piedmont, encouraging literacy in the community; and, as Coordinator for RH State of the Community project for the Rock Hill Area Council. Additionally, she has sponsored a voter registration table for Experience SC; has sponsored the Blues and Jazz Festival for the Arts Council of York County; has donated scholarship and gift certificate prizes for Unity Festival Kids Zone, an arts competition for elementary school children and an essay competition for middle and high school children; has sponsored Healthy Women, Healthy Girls Camp; and has volunteered for York County Chamber of Commerce at Main Street Live. In spite of all the other demands on her time, I was proud of the dedication and commitment that I saw in Twana during her tenure as the York County Bar Association's President.

Most of all, though, I am proud of the beautiful (in person and, more importantly, in spirit) young woman and friend that she has become. You could not select a better person to participate on your ethics review board.

Sincerely,

Paula Knox Brown

Resurrected Life Ministry In Jesus Christ

Apostle Vanderbilt Evans, Sr. D. D. ~ Pastor

December 15, 2012

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate,

I am Dr. Vanderbilt Evans, Sr. the senior pastor of Resurrected Live Ministry In Jesus Christ, Inc. located in North Charleston, South Carolina 29405. I am also retired United States Marine Corps and served honorably for my country.

I have had the privilege and honor of knowing Twana Burris- Alcide for over 10 years. As a community leader myself, I met Twana when she worked as a law clerk for a Circuit Court Judge in Charleston, SC. Recently, I had the privilege of ushering Arieus Alcide and Twana Burris-Alcide into holy matrimony through counseling and during their public ceremony in Rock Hill, SC. My wife and I performed their wedding vows. This was one of the most harmonious and beautiful occasion that I have ever been honored to be apart off.

Twana is a person of integrity and has an overflowing character of love for people and her community. This young woman is a very hard worker, who works beyond the scope of exceptionableness; and will embrace any challenge with the righteousness and sincerity that all should possess, for the accomplishment of her community in achieving the rights of the people.

This young woman will bring a fresh, exceptional and unconventional behavior to the senate and the state of South Carolina.

I believe that one of the most important factors that the senate should know about this young lady is that she is a person whom operate in the greatest integrity; and put her heart, intellect and wisdom into any situation in which she deals with on a daily basis, Amen.

Mrs. Alcide foundation principals are unquestionable, who love people, her state and her country, and have the desire to serve the need of the people in the state of South Carolina. I am very proud of this young woman, whom I call my spiritual daughter, Amen!

Sincerely

Dr. Vanderbilt Evans, Sr.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate:

I am delighted to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Twana Burris Alcide for the South Carolina Senate State Ethics Board Commission. I have known Twana for over 15 years as a colleague and friend. She and I met while attending the University of South Carolina in 1995. Also, we were both members of several campus community service organizations.

Twana spent the majority of her time at The University of South Carolina focusing on her academics, leadership, and community service to the campus and the Richland county community. Twana held many leadership positions and also chaired several community service projects when she was enrolled as an undergraduate student at The University of South Carolina. One of my fondest memories of Twana is her serving as a mentor for high school students with the Southern Region Violence and Substance Abuse Prevention Project. She spent countless hours speaking to local high school students about the importance of completing their education instead of choosing violence or drugs. Twana graduated from USC with honors and was recognized for having the highest Grade Point Average (GPA) among all members of the community service organization Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Twana continues to be compassionate about her community and youth as an attorney in Rock Hill, SC. She has exemplified great leadership skills in her service as a facilitator of the Gethsemane Baptist Church Youth Oratorical Competition; The United Way of York County Toy Drive; Literacy Center of the Piedmont and Volunteer and Coordinator for the Rock Hill State of the Community. Annually, Twana plays an integral role in organizing and donating dollars for scholarships and prizes for the Unity Festival Kids Zone. In her involvement in these community service events, she has invited many of her University of South Carolina colleagues, including myself to assist her in these worthy efforts. Her collegial leadership and trust among peers was evident when she was elected as the President of the York County Bar Association.

Twana's strong, deep character, integrity and a selfless devotion to others are qualities I admire most. Even with the demands of a thriving private practice and being a wife and mother, she devotes countless hours to her church and community.

I recommend Twana Burris- Alcide the South Carolina Senate State Ethics Board Commission without reservations. I am confident that she will be an asset to the commission and our great State.
Sincerely,

Senators,

Please allow this letter to serve as my professional and personal recommendation in support of Twana N. Burris's appointment to the State Ethics Commission. I know Twana professionally as she worked for me from 2003-2006 when I was Solicitor of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit, and now as a peer in the Rock Hill legal community. I also know her personally and by reputation. In my opinion, she would make an outstanding member of the Commission.

I believe Twana's experience as a former prosecutor has prepared her well for the responsibilities of the Ethics Commission. I can attest that her personal values and unwavering quest for truth helped assure that she carried out her duties as prosecutor in a fair and even handed manner. She handled her cases with objectivity and consistently exercised sound judgment. Her integrity is above reproach and highly admired by her peers.

In testament to her strong work ethic, I have seen Twana successfully develop her law practice as a sole practitioner while continuing to maintain an active involvement in community service. She is bright, innovative and exhibits a positive attitude with the ability to build consensus --- characteristics that I believe will be crucial as we face the changes that will be brought about through ethics reform.

Twana has a genuine attitude of service and a desire to make government readily accessible and transparent. Her positive approach to problem-solving and clarity would benefit our State greatly. It is without hesitation that I recommend Twana. I appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,
