The flag is a symbol of our southern heritage, not of hatred!

I agree with the stated matter in the letter and believe that it would be a disgrace to remove the confederate flag, and no offense but who is Nikki Haley to remove that flag? She IS NOT from this state NOR is she from the south so therefore has no southern heritage. She has no idea what that flag means to many of us, along with all the other uneducated, ignorant members of this state that say the flag should be removed. That flag honors all of the confederates : white, black, men, woman, and children who fought for what they believed in, not slavery, but freedom from the overpowering, overbearing Union. That flag earned and honors a special time and place in history and should do so until the end of time. The flag should peacefully, and gracefully be able to fly proudly and left be. It has earned and deserves it.

Slaves were in America from 1619 till 1865,,,This flag flew over battlefields from 1861 till 1865,Do the math ,hardley a symbol of slavery,Those lost in Charleston should never have been used as an excuse to bring this up.Let the confederate soldier have his flag,he earned it!
