My husband and I are super interested in booking one of the cabins on Dreher Island. Could you point me to some photos of the cabins and Dreher area?

Are you speaking of the 2/3 bedroom villas or the rustic camper cabins?

Towels? Linens?

Yes, you will need to bring towels and linens, and anything else you may need. There is a central bathhouse for you to use. You may want chairs to sit outside. There is a picnic table for each cabin and a fire ring with grill rack. Bring all of your food and basically anything you would need while camping.....except your tent!
