TBT: 09/05/2015 - Think about the setting for your Wedding & Reception being in one of the most romantic locations, both outdoors and indoors, where you are surrounded by historic Southern Homes and lush gardens... well, Lace House at the SC Governor's Mansion is one such place. Imagine trying to set up the event, coordinate seating, tents, florist, catering, entertainment, draping, lighting, (Including gorgeous chandeliers), provide refreshing beverages, create the most beautiful of wedding cakes, and then capture the love & emotion in imagery that will last forever. Of course, you still have to maintain your sanity, as well as simultaneously coordinate several other weddings, during the same time period... at different locations. One thing we've learned as we get the awesome opportunity to help transform wedding & reception venues for so many clients is this...

Wedding and Event Planners Have the Patience of a Saint!

The additional benefit we gain, working alongside so many professionals, is that they help us look like stars! Here's the list of pros we worked with. Check them out for your event:
