Tammy L Hicks Herring My son and myself visited our first State Park this evening for the ultimate outsider. We have been to a few State Parks in the past but I thought it would be nice for us to visit all 47 State Parks together and purchased two map guides for our stamps and a year long pass but when we arrived this evening to the Aiken State Park....it was isolated and there wasn't a park ranger around to get a stamp. Asking, because, I am trying to plan for a group of friends to become ultimate outsiders....how do we know if a park ranger will be at each State Park?
