

From: GOVERNING Daily <newsletters@governing.com>
To: Lt. Governor's OfficeLtGov@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 12/5/2018 10:11:13 AM
Subject: Trump's New Immigration Rule Could Threaten Health Care for 6.8 Million Children Who Are U.S. Citizens

Subscribe to Governing Magazine & Newsletters
Follow us on Facebook / Twitter / LinkedIn / Instagram

FEATURED STORY FOR DECEMBER 5, 2018

Trump's New Immigration Rule Could Threaten Health Care for 6.8 Million Children Who Are U.S. Citizens

There is less than one week left of the public comment period for the proposed "public charge" rule.

LATEST GOVERNING NEWS & COMMENTARY

POLITICS

Lame-Duck Power Grabs Aren't New, But Republicans in Wisconsin and Michigan Are 'More Aggressive'

Legislatures in recent years have increased, and intensified, their attempts to assert authority over other branches of government.

FINANCE

1 State and 1 County Now Accept Bitcoin. Will Others Follow?

Governments in the U.S. are starting to accept cryptocurrencies, a controversial method of payment that got its start on the dark web.

WASHINGTON WATCH

'Jenga Federalism': Trump's Method for Undoing Obama's Policies

The White House has learned that there's more than one way to attack a liberal-leaning federal government.

VOICES OF THE GOVERNING INSTITUTE

An Issue Americans Agree On: Investing in Public Health

Despite political divisions, they understand how important it is for improving their lives and their communities.

CONTENT PROVIDED BY ORACLE

Oracle Streamlines the Paperwork of Permits

This new solution takes direct aim at the siloed, manual and paper-driven processes that surround residential and commercial construction, the heartbeat of any municipality seeking to serve its constituents and entice businesses and citizens to call their city home.

READ ARTICLE

LATEST WEB HEADLINES

HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES

- Medicaid Changes Will Give Patients Less Time to Apply for Coverage in Florida

INFRASTRUCTURE & ENVIRONMENT

- Tennessee Governor Unveils Statewide Water Availability Plan

MANAGEMENT & LABOR

- Protests Rise Over Cuts to Paid Sick Leave and Minimum Wage Proposals in Michigan

POLITICS

- 'I Am Open to All Options': Georgia's Stacey Abrams Eyes Political Future
- After Senate Victory, Florida Governor Will Remain in Current Role Until Jan. 8

PUBLIC JUSTICE & SAFETY

- Maryland and D. C. Subpoena Trump Businesses for Evidence of Conflicts of Interest
- Stoking Fears of Surveillance, NYPD Set to Deploy Drone Fleet

EDUCATION

- Nation's First Charter School Strike Halts Classes for 7,500 Chicago Students

NEWS IN NUMBERS

$122 per ton

Price that Richland, Wash., pays to have its recycling hauled away. It used to receive $16 per ton for its recyclables. Since China drastically cut back this year on the used paper and plastic it buys from America, the U.S. recycling market has suffered.

MORE

WHO SAID THAT?

"[Abortion] is gonna be classified as a homicide because, essentially, a fertilized egg is a human life just like a 1-year-old baby is a human life."

MORE

CONTENT PROVIDED BY ORACLE

Autonomous Database: Larry Ellison Oracle OpenWorld2018 Keynote Highlights

Highlights from Oracle Executive Chairman and Chief Technology Officer Larry Ellison's Oracle OpenWorld 2018 keynote, "Cloud Generation 2."

WATCH VIDEO

\ri120

Unsubscribe | Opt out of all e.Republic email | Privacy Statement

© 2018 e.Republic. All rights reserved. 100 Blue Ravine Road, Folsom, CA 95630. Phone: 916-932-1300