Subject: You still haven't registered SOUTH CAROLINA, STATE OF for government bid notifications

Dear TONY,

BidSync is the online service that many government agencies use to post bid opportunities, solicit responses and award business? In order to respond to opportunities from these agencies you must register with BidSync . Register your company today at no charge--it's fast and easy.

BidSync also aggregates bids from most United States state agencies and notifies registered users when an opportunity matches their business. Currently there are over 30,000 active bid opportunities and last year we notified our users of over 960,000 bids in the United States. Subscribers to our LinksPLUS service gain an advantage over their competitors by being notified quickly of opportunities that they may not have found through their own searches.

Access more government opportunities and win more business in the United States. Register today with BidSync to receive notice of their bids, RFPs and contract opportunities.

In addition to notification services, BidSync offers many other services to help you grow your business. These additional services include:

- Assistance in writing RFP responses
- Providing contact information for people within agencies
- Research spend analytics

If you need assistance or have questions, please contact BidSync Customer Support. This is an occasional email to help you get the most out of your RFP bid notification service. Unsubscribe. This email was intended for TONY KESTER at kester@aging.sc.gov.
