Join us for the Atalaya Holiday Celebration at Huntington Beach State Park, Sunday, December 5th.

First Annual

Atalaya Holiday Celebration

Visit this National Historic Landmark decorated for the holidays.

Sunday
December
5th

1 to 5 PM

Rooms throughout Atalaya will be decorated by local florists, garden clubs and other businesses. Visitors will vote for their favorite in several categories.

Enjoy live music while you stroll throughout the house.

Homemade goodies will be available for sale in "Grandma's Kitchen." Cookies, mugs w/cocoa, chocolate lollipops, cider and a children's corner. Come try something tasty!

Handmade holiday items including aprons, kitchen angels, small boxwood trees, lighted shell trees, ornaments, pinecone wreaths, flower bulbs, bird treats, holiday bows, winter hats and more will be available for sale. Come browse for a gift or for yourself!

A full-size Christmas tree, decorated by local artist Mimi Gula, will be up for silent auction. The tree will be delivered to the winner.

Cost is $2/person ages 6 and up. Payable at Atalaya. This is in addition to the park entrance fee. The event is a fundraiser for the Friends of Huntington Beach State Park, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to helping the Park fulfill its mission of providing quality outdoor recreation and educational opportunities. www.huntingtonbeachstatepark.com or email at friendshbsp@gmail.com
