Hi Christian,

I hope this note finds you well.

I recently met with the Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta to update them on ACT Work Ready Communities. It gave me the opportunity to talk about the best practice model in South Carolina and the great work being led by the Governor.

An outcome of this conversation is that the Federal Reserve Bank is looking to convene a panel to discuss Work Ready Communities at their upcoming workforce policy conference. And, they have asked me to extend the attached invitation letter to Governor Haley. Hence, I am the messenger here.

Hope you have a nice weekend.

Warm regards,
Debra
