Just for the Record

Anyone have any way to prove or disprove the facts stated in this graphic? Did one (1) or more prior sessions of the U. S. Congress pass laws making Confederate soldiers, sailors and Marines veterans and authorize monuments and/or headstones erected on their behalf?

Pete the Cowboy

A cowboy named Pete was overseeing his herd in a remote mountainous pasture in Western Montana when suddenly a brand-new 2015 BMW advanced toward him out of a cloud of dust. The driver, a young man in a Brioni® suit, Gucci® shoes, RayBan® sunglasses and YSL® tie, leaned out the window and asked the cowboy; "If I tell you exactly how many cows and calves you have in your herd, will you give me a calf?"

Pete looks at the man, who obviously is a yuppie, then looks at his peacefully grazing herd and calmly answers; "Sure, why not?"

The yuppie parks his car, whips out his Dell® notebook computer, connects it to his Apple iPhone and surfs to a NASA page on the Internet, where he calls up a GPS satellite to get an exact fix on his location which he then feeds to another NASA satellite that scans the area in an ultra-high-resolution photo.

The young man then opens the digital photo in Adobe Photoshop® and exports it to an image processing facility in Hamburg, Germany.

Within seconds, he receives an E-Mail on his Apple iPad® that the image has been processed and the data stored. He then accesses an MS-SQL® database through an ODBC connected Excel® spreadsheet with E-Mail on his Galaxy S5® and after a few minutes, receives a response.

Finally, he prints out a full-color, one hundred fifty (150) page report on his hi-tech, miniaturized HP LaserJet® printer, turns to the cowboy and says; "You have exactly one thousand, five hundred eighty six (1,586) cows and calves."

"That's right. Well, I guess you can take one (1) of my calves," says Pete—with a smile.

Pete watches the young man select one (1) of the animals and is amusement as the young man stuffs it into the trunk of his car.

Then Pete says to the young man; "Hey, if I can tell you exactly what your business is, will you give me back my calf?"

The young man thinks about it for a second and then says; "Okay, why not?"

"You're a U. S. Congressman," says Pete.

"Wow! That's correct," says the yuppie. "But how did you guess that?"

"No guessing required." answered Pete. "You showed up here even though nobody called. You want to get paid for an answer I already knew, to a question I never asked. You used millions of dollars' worth of equipment trying to show me how much smarter than me you are and you don't know s**t about how working people make a living—or about cows for that matter. This is a herd of sheep."

"Now give me back my dog."

Isn't it Amazing?

Remember a few years ago when pro golfer Eldrick 'Tiger' Woods crashed his Cadillac Escalade?

Isn't it amazing that within a week the press found every woman with whom 'Tiger' had an affair during the previous few years?

They even uncovered photos, text messages, recorded phone calls, etc.!

Furthermore, they not only knew the cause of the family fight, but they even knew it was a nine (9) iron from his golf bag that his wife used to break out the windows in the Escalade.

Not only that, they know which wedge!

And, each and every day, they were able to continue to provide America with updates on 'Tiger's' sex rehab stay, his wife's divorce settlement figures, as well as the dates of tournaments in which he planned to play.

Now, barry soetoro, aka barack hussein obama, ii has been in office for over six (6) years, yet this very same press:

- Cannot find any of his childhood friends or neighbors; or
- Any of his high school or college classmates; or
- Any of his former girlfriends; or
- Locate any of his college papers or grades; or
- Determine how he paid for both a Columbia and a Harvard education; or
- Discover which country issued his visa to travel to Pakistan in the 1980s; or
- Even find michelle lavaughn robinson obama's Princeton thesis on racism;

They just can't seem to uncover any of this. Yet, the public still trusts that same press to give them the whole truth! Don't you find that amazing?

Thoughts

Some two hundred (200) years ago White people sat on their porches and watched Black people do the work that needed to be done so the White people could live the life they wanted. If the Black people didn't produce enough to keep the White people happy, they complained about it. In those days it was called slavery.

Today Black people sit on their porches and watch White people work to pay the taxes that are necessary for the Black people to live the life they want. If their welfare check is not enough to keep them happy, they complain about it.

It would appear to me that the only thing that has changed is the color of the slaves.
