Subject: Serving others

Dear Nevadans:

I am writing a letter to personally urge you to vote for my grandnephew, Adam Laxalt.

I was born in Carson City and came to Las Vegas in the 1950s. I served in the field of religious education and ministry to the homebound as a member of the Sisters of the Holy Family, and later became director of Catholic Charities in Reno. Adam is the grandson of my brother and former District Attorney, Lieutenant Governor, Governor, and United States Senator Paul D. Laxalt. While Paul is now 92 years old, he was very much Adam's father-figure as he grew up and has been proud of his grandson's many accomplishments.

Our parents were immigrants from the Basque country in the Pyrenees Mountains. They worked hard and made their way in our country and amidst many obstacles. They were determined to make Nevada their "adopted land", and they succeeded. Since then, we Laxalts have devoted our lives to the service of Nevada, which includes my now deceased brothers, Robert, Peter, and John. Adam is blessed to have many other family members throughout our state rally behind and lend support this year, because they believe, as I do, that he will work hard for Nevada and its people. Adam wants to continue the Laxalt family's line of service, and has already shown his willingness to serve over the past years. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Georgetown University and later from Georgetown University Law School. He went on to serve in the U.S. Navy in the Judge Advocate General Corps, and volunteered to serve in Iraq. After leaving the military, he came home to Nevada and is an attorney with the Las Vegas law firm, Lewis, Roca, and Rothgerber, LLP. He is a member of the Board of Trustees for Southern Nevada Catholic Charities, and is the co-founder of a legal ethics society in Nevada.

Adam is blessed with leadership qualities, as well as a strong analytical and legal mind. His additional assets of gentility and kindness are nonpolitical; however, in my humble opinion, they are truly needed in the realm of serving others. I personally have been the recipient of his many kindnesses, and thank him for them and wanting to serve in this way. Will you please join me and my family in supporting Adam as he moves forward in his desire to serve the residents of our beloved state of Nevada? To SERVE is a legacy given to him by those who preceded him, and I know he will accomplish much for our great state.

Sincerely,

Sister Sue Laxalt
Adam's great aunt
