On December 10, 1520 Martin Luther, who had sent the Pope a copy of On the Freedom of a Christian in October, publicly set fire to the Papal bull Exsurge Domine and decretals at Wittenberg.

Luther defended this act in his pamphlets entitled Why the Pope and his Recent Book are Burned and Assertions Concerning All Articles.

[Excerpts, emphasis, additional comment added]

Exsurge Domine (Latin for "Arise, O Lord") is a papal bull promulgated on 15 June 1520 by Pope Leo X.

It was written in response to the teachings of Martin Luther which opposed the views of the Church.

It censured forty one propositions extracted from Luther's Ninety-five Theses and subsequent writings, and threatened him with excommunication unless he recanted within a sixty-day period commencing upon the publication of the bull in Saxony and its neighboring regions. Luther refused to recant and responded instead by composing polemical tracts lashing out at the papacy and by publicly burning a copy of the bull on 10 December 1520. As a result, Luther was excommunicated in 1521.

On 10 December 1520, sixty days after Luther had received a copy of this bull, he and Melanchthon invited the local university faculty and students to assemble that morning at the Elster Gate in Wittenberg.

A bonfire was lit and volumes of canon law, papal constitutions, and works of scholastic theology were burned.

Luther himself tossed a copy of the bull into the flames. Having done so, Luther is reported to have said,

"Because you have confounded the truth [or, the saints] of God, today the Lord confounds you. Into the fire deeper motives than a mere retaliatory desire to treat these representations of Catholic authority with the same regard that the papal bull had shown for his own books. By burning these works, Luther signaled his decisive break from Catholicism's traditions and institutions.[FN 29] Luther himself later explained his actions that day:

Since they have burned my books, I burn theirs. The canon law was included because it makes the pope a god on earth . So far I have merely fooled with this business of the pope.

All my articles condemned by Antichrist are Christian. Seldom has the pope overcome anyone with Scripture and with reason.[FN 30]

The breach between Luther and the papacy was finalized on 3 January 1521, when on account of Luther's failure to comply, the Pope issued the bull Decet Romanum Pontificem to declare that he had been formally excommunicated.

[Dec 10th] 497th Anniversary of historic burning of Pope Leo X's Papal Bull
by brave professor Dr. Martin Luther [Wittenberg, Germany - Dec 10, 1520]

October 31, 1517 was the Beginning of the Christian Protestant Reformation, whose 500th Anniversary was just recently celebrated October 31, 2017

As we move forward in history with the ongoing Reformation thereafter, the burning of the Papal Bull of Anti-Christ Pope Leo X by Christian Martin Luther on December 10, 1520 marked a major milestone in the moral and spiritual maturation, and growth, of the Reformation movement, which over the course of decades and centuries, changed Western Civilization and the course of world history !

"The burning of the bull marks the beginning of a new era in the movement of the Reformation; it defines the fulness of Luther's doctrinal views, the result of a matured judgment respecting the two systems and the two Churches. Many new recruits now flock around the standard of spiritual liberty, in all lands and in all ranks; a blessed spring-time seems to have visited the world, yet there are many storms still to come."

"Young Folks' History of THE REFORMATION", by Fred H. Allen, 1887, Chapter XXI., p. 327.

[Excerpts, emphasis added]

"... whoever wrote this bull, he is Antichrist. I protest before God, our Lord Jesus, his sacred angels, and the whole world that with my whole heart I dissent from the damnation of this bull, that I curse and execrate it as sacrilege and blasphemy of Christ, God's Son and our Lord. This be my recantation,

Oh bull, thou daughter of bulls."

Having given my testimony I proceed to take up the bull. Peter said that you should give a reason for the faith that is in you, but this bull condemns me from its own word without any proof from Scripture, whereas I back up all my assertions from the Bible. I ask thee, ignorant Antichrist, dost thou think that with thy naked words thou canst prevail against the armor of Scripture? [continued...]

So then, you impious and insensate papists, write soberly if you want to write.
Whether this bull is by Eck or by the pope, it is the sum of all impiety, blasphemy, ignorance, impudence, hypocrisy, lying – in a word,
it is Satan and his Antichrist.

Where are you now, most excellent Charles the Emperor, kings, and Christian princes? You were baptized into the name of Christ, and can you suffer these Tartar voices of Antichrist? Where are you, bishops? Where, doctors?
Where are you who confess Christ? Woe to all who live in these times. The wrath of God is coming upon the papists, the enemies Of the cross of Christ, that all men should resist them. [

"Young Folks' History of THE REFORMATION", by Fred H. Allen, 1887, Chapter XXI., pp. 325-327.

"In accordance with an announcement which had been posted on the walls of the University of Wittenberg [Germany] on the morning of Dec. 10th, Luther issued from the gate of that seat of learning at the head of six hundred doctors and students and a sympathizing crowd of citizens, and proceeded to the eastern gate of the town to burn the Pontiff's bull - for all unclean things were burned without [outside] the camp. Here stood a scaffold with a pile of logs laid upon it.

One of the Masters of Arts applied a torch to the pile, which soon enveloped in flames.
Then Luther, in the garb of his order, stepped forth from the crowd, and cast the several volumes composing the Canon Law of the [false Roman Catholic] Church, one after the other, on the blazing pile. Like common things the flames consumed these awful volumes. But the hecatomb was not yet complete. Luther now held up the bull of Leo X., saying, "Since thou hast vexed the Holy One of the Lord, may everlasting fire vex and consume thee," and threw it into the burning mass. In a few moments its ashes mingled with those of its predecessors."

"The blow has been struck. Doctors, masters, students, townsmen again gathered around the Reformer, and marched back to the city amidst demonstrations of triumph."

"Luther followed up his action with words. On the following day, while lecturing on the Psalms, he reverted to the episode of the bull in a strain of impassioned eloquence and invective. The burning of the bull, said he, is but the sign; the thing signified is the conflagration of the Papacy. This, he intimated to the assembled students, was what they were to aim at. "The time is come when Christians must choose between death here and death hereafter. For my own part, I choose death here. ... I abominate the Babylonian pest. As long as I live I will proclaim the truth. If the wholesale destruction of souls throughout Christendom cannot be prevented, at least I shall labor to the utmost of my power to rescue my own countrymen from the bottomless pit." "

"Thus did the monk of Wittenberg fling back the bolt hurled against him from the Seven Hills [Rome]. Never before did Rome launch this instrument [Papal Bull threatening excommunication] without crushing the offender against whom it was directed; but a Higher Power [God] this time not only rendered it innocuous, but caused it to react on its framers."

Note: Do we wonder and marvel at the Holy Ghost imbued spiritual power of the Reformation ? When more Christian leaders are willing to speak and act upon the truth as God's servant Martin Luther spoke and acted (true Christian love "rejoiceth in the truth" 1 Corinthians 13:6, KJV), then perhaps we will see more spiritual power in the professedly Bible-believing, born-again, evangelical Christian church in America, in both pulpit and pew ! And therefore in the nation ! (As the true Christian church goes, so goes the nation, Matthew 5:13-16, KJV). Such spiritual power from heaven visited upon the Christian church should not be expected as long as the Church of Jesus Christ is yoking up with the Babylonian Whore, Satan's false church of Rome, led by the Papal Anti-Christ in the Vatican !!!

It was written in response to the teachings of Martin Luther which opposed the views of the Church. Note: The Papal Bull [Exsurge Domine] burned by Martin Luther on December 10, 1520 did not excommunicate him, but threatened to do so unless he recanted. When Martin Luther did not recant, but instead further rebuked Rome and the Anti-Christ papacy, then the Pope issued another Papal Bull [Decet Romanum Pontificem] January 3, 1521, which formally excommunicated Luther from the false Roman Catholic "church".

Condemning the Errors of Martin Luther

Pope Leo X - June 15, 1520

<http://www.papalencyclicals.net/Leo10/110exdom.htm>

[Excerpts, emphasis added]

Excerpts from Anti-Christ Pope Leo X's Papal Bull:

In virtue of our pastoral office committed to us by the divine favor we can under no circumstances tolerate or overlook any longer the pernicious poison of the above errors without disgrace to the Christian religion and injury to orthodox faith. Some of these errors we have decided to include in the present document; their substance is as follows:

25. The Roman Pontiff, the successor of Peter, is not the vicar of Christ over all the churches of the entire world, instituted by Christ Himself in blessed Peter.

33. That heretics be burned is against the will of the Spirit.

37. Purgatory cannot be proved from Sacred Scripture which is in the canon.

Moreover, because the preceding errors and many others are contained in the books or writings of Martin Luther, we likewise condemn, reprobate, and reject completely the books and all the writings and sermons of the said Martin, whether in Latin or any other language, containing the said errors or any one of them; and we wish them to be regarded as utterly condemned, reprobated, and rejected. We forbid each and every one of the faithful of either sex, in virtue of holy obedience and under the above penalties to be incurred automatically, to read, assert, preach, praise, print, publish, or defend them. They will incur these penalties if they presume to uphold them in any way, personally or through another or others, directly or indirectly, tacitly or explicitly, publicly or occultly, either in their own homes or in other public or private places. Indeed immediately after the publication of this letter these works, wherever they may be, shall be sought out carefully by the ordinaries and others [ecclesiastics and regulars], and under each and every one of the above penalties shall be burned publicly and solemnly in the presence of the clerics and people.

Therefore let Martin himself and all those adhering to him, and those who shelter and support him, through the merciful heart of our God and the sprinkling of the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ by which and through whom the redemption of the human race and the upbuilding of holy mother Church was accomplished, know that from our heart we exhort and beseech that he cease to disturb the peace, unity, and truth of the Church for which the Savior prayed so earnestly to the Father. Let him abstain from his pernicious errors that he may come back to us. If they really will obey, and certify to us by legal documents that they have obeyed, they will find in us the affection of a father's love, the opening of the font of the effects of paternal charity, and opening of the font of mercy and clemency.

We enjoin, however, on Martin that in the meantime he cease from all preaching or the office of preacher.

Threat of Banishment and Burning the Papal Bull [threatening] Excommunication (1520-1521)

<http://www.luther.de/en/bann.html>

Luther Distances Himself from the Papacy

Because of constant attacks from the Roman Church, Luther was forced to shape his ideology into an autonomous theology.

During the years 1520-1521 he worked on the three great works "Address to the Christian Nobility of the German Nation", "The Babylonian Captivity" and "The Freedom of the Christian Man", thereby emotionally cutting himself off from Rome.

The inquisition against Luther was taken up again in 1520, partly because of these works. The peak of the inquisition came on June 15, 1520, with the Papal Bull of excommunication in which Luther was ordered to recant his teachings.

Burning the Papal Bull [threatening] Excommunication and Excommunication

Luther reacted in protest. He burned the Papal Bull ("Exurge Domine") along with the book of church law and many other books by his enemies on December 10, 1520 in Wittenberg where the Luther Oak (Luthereiche) stands today. He is said to have yelled:
"Because you, godless book, have grieved or shamed the holiness of the Father, be saddened and consumed by the eternal flames of Hell".

This behavior caused a conclusive and irrevocable break with Rome. On January 3, 1521 the Pope excommunicated Luther.

The Emperor, however, felt forced to accept Luther because of the pro-Luther mood in the empire and because of the influence of various princes who were hoping to weaken the Pope's political influence through Luther. As a result, the rebel was guaranteed safe escort on his trip to the Imperial Diet of Worms. [1521]

Decet Romanum Pontificem

https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Decet_Romanum_Pontificem

"Decet Romanum Pontificem (English: It Befits the Roman Pontiff) (1521) is the papal bull excommunicating Martin Luther, bearing the title of the first three Latin words of the text. It was issued on January 3, 1521, by Pope Leo X to effect the excommunication threatened in his earlier papal bull Exsurge Domine (1520) since Luther failed to recant. Luther had burned his copy of Exsurge Domine on December 10, 1520, at the Elster Gate in Wittenberg, indicating his response to it."

America has been blessed in the past as the One, True God of the Bible has been honored in our individual lives and in our corporate family, church, and national lives. However today America is suffering the ongoing Judgment of Almighty God because we have turned from the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word. Jesus Christ is the Word (John 1:1, 14, KJV). The answer is to return to serving King Jesus, and obeying His Word in the 66 Books of the Bible (Not the false Roman Catholic "bible" of 73 books). There was a Reformation for a reason , and in America in 2017, the answer to saving this country from calamitous destruction is to return to the Bible, which the Reformers held up as the supreme authority for Christians. (The Bible is NOT the supreme authority in the false Roman Catholic religion.)

Many of the British North American colonies that eventually formed the United States of America were settled in the seventeenth century by men and women, who, in the face of European persecution, refused to compromise passionately held religious convictions and fled Europe. The New England colonies, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Maryland were conceived and established "as plantations of religion." Some settlers who arrived in these areas came for secular motives -- "to catch fish" as one New Englander put it -- but the great majority left Europe to worship God in the way they believed to be correct. They enthusiastically supported the efforts of their leaders to create "a city on a hill" or a "holy experiment," whose success would prove that God's plan for his churches could be successfully realized in the American wilderness. Even colonies like Virginia, which were planned as commercial ventures, were led by entrepreneurs who considered themselves "militant Protestants" and who worked diligently to promote the prosperity of the church.

The Counter Reformation and the Origin of Futurism

[CCL: Futurism is false, Jesuit-inspired, Counter-Reformation, Roman Catholic eschatology]

"Not only did the Reformers proclaim the mighty truth of justification by faith for the liberation of men's souls, but they nerved thousands to break from the tyranny of the dark ages of the papacy by clearly identifying the antichrist of Bible prophecy. The symbols of Daniel, Paul and John were applied with tremendous effect.

The realization that the incriminating finger of prophecy rested squarely on Rome aroused the consciousness of Europe. In alarm Rome saw that she must successfully counteract this identification of antichrist with the papacy or lose the battle. She must present plausible arguments which would cause men to look outside the medieval period for the development of antichrist.

Jesuit scholarship rallied to the Roman cause by providing two plausible alternatives to the historical interpretation of the Protestants.

[Excerpts]

1. [Roman Catholic Jesuit priest and theologian] Luis de Alcazar (1554-1613) of Seville, Spain, devised what became known as the "preterist" system of prophetic interpretation. [continued...]

2. [Roman Catholic Jesuit priest and theologian] Francisco Ribera (1537-1591) of Salamanca, Spain. took a far more successful tack.

He was the founder of the "futurist" system of prophetic interpretation. Instead of placing antichrist way in the past as did Alcazar, Ribera argued that antichrist would appear way in the future. About 1590 Ribera published a five hundred page commentary on the Apocalypse, denying the Protestant application of antichrist to the Church of Rome. The gist of his futurist system was as follows: [continued...]

Chapter 26: Of the Church. The Lord Jesus Christ is the Head of the church, in whom, by the appointment of the Father, all power for the calling, institution, order or government of the church, is invested in a supreme and sovereign manner;

neither can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalteth himself in the church against Christ, and all that is called God; whom the Lord shall destroy with the brightness of his coming. (Colossians 1:18; Matthew 28:18-20; Ephesians 4:11, 12; 2 Thessalonians 2:2-9)

"The [Anti-Christ] Pope and the Papacy" - John MacArthur, pastor

Excerpt [emphasis added]:

"In the long war on the truth, the most formidable, relentless and deceptive enemy has been Roman Catholicism .
It is an apostate , corrupt , heretical , false Christianity , it is a front for the kingdom of Satan . The true church of the Lord Jesus Christ has always understood this. And even through the Dark Ages from 400 to 1500, prior to the Reformation, genuine Christian believers set themselves apart from that system, and were brutally punished and executed for their rejection of that system."

[Note: Unfortunately John MacArthur did not use either the King James Version or the 1599 Geneva Bible in quoting Scriptures within his message.]

The Reformation was born of Luther's dual declaration – first, the discovering of Jesus and salvation by faith alone; and second, identifying the papacy as the Antichrist . [7]

The Reformers trumpeted two fundamental truths that changed Western Civilization and the World:

- 1) Justification by Faith Alone; and
- 2) The Roman Catholic Papacy is the Antichrist of Biblical prophecy

"Not only did the Reformers proclaim the mighty truth of justification by faith for the liberation of men's souls, but they nerved thousands to break from the tyranny of the dark ages of the papacy by clearly identifying the antichrist of Bible prophecy. The symbols of Daniel, Paul and John were applied with tremendous effect. The realization that the incriminating finger of prophecy rested squarely on Rome aroused the consciousness of Europe. In alarm Rome saw that she must successfully counteract this identification of antichrist with the papacy or lose the battle. She must present plausible arguments which would cause men to look outside the medieval period for the development of antichrist.

Jesuit scholarship rallied to the Roman cause by providing two plausible alternatives to the historical interpretation of the Protestants.

[Excerpts]

1. [Roman Catholic Jesuit priest and theologian] Luis de Alcazar (1554-1613) of Seville, Spain, devised what became known as the "preterist" system of prophetic interpretation. [continued...]

2. [Roman Catholic Jesuit priest and theologian] Francisco Ribera (1537-1591) of Salamanca, Spain. took a far more successful tack.

He was the founder of the "futurist" system of prophetic interpretation. Instead of placing antichrist way in the past as did Alcazar, Ribera argued that antichrist would appear way in the future. About 1590 Ribera published a five hundred page commentary on the Apocalypse, denying the Protestant application of antichrist to the Church of Rome. The gist of his futurist system was as follows: [continued...]

Justification by Faith and the Identity of Antichrist

Volume Fourteen — Article 6

[Excerpts, emphasis added]

Not only did the church of the Reformation come to a united understanding of justification by faith, but at the same time it came to a united understanding about the identity of antichrist. It is important, indeed most urgent, that we realize this relationship between the light on justification by faith and the identity of antichrist.

Now we do not contend that the Reformers were without fault in their theology. There were points on which they could not agree among themselves. But we had better give serious consideration to the points on which the evangelical church reached total and united agreement. Such unity is evidence of the Holy Spirit's endorsement. Says James Buchanan:

Few things in the history of the Church are more remarkable than the entire unanimity of the Reformers on the subject of a sinner's Justification before God . . . and can only be accounted for by ascribing it to a copious effusion of the Holy Spirit. - James Buchanan,

The Doctrine of Justification (republished London: The Banner of Truth Trust, 1961), pp. 165,166.

The same thing may be said about the Reformers' united testimony as to the identification of antichrist.

With one united voice they said that the "man of sin" was the office of the papacy.

Nowadays many want to dismiss the Reformers' view of antichrist as mere "polemics of a bygone era." But it was not a matter of ill will in the midst of theological controversy. "This understanding of the position and function of the papacy became an important part of Luther's theology. It was not merely part of his polemic but apart from all personal animosity a sincere theological conviction."

- George W. Forell, Faith Active in Love (Minneapolis: Augsburg Pub. House, 1954), p.171. Said Luther, "You must be armed with Scripture so that you cannot only call the pope the Anti-Christ but also know how to prove it so clearly that you could die with this conviction and stand against the devil in death." - Cited by Forell, ibid.

To the Reformation church the papacy was the very antichrist, the prophesied "man of sin," because it committed the ultimate impiety by making war on justification by faith alone. Dr. F. Pieper expresses the view of the Reformation when he writes in Christian Dogmatics:

There can be no greater enemy of the Church of God than the Papacy. In and by the doctrine of justification the Church lives . . . Can anything worse befall the Church than being robbed of the doctrine of justification, by which alone she lives and exists? When the enemy takes my earthly life, he can do me no greater harm in earthly matters. And when the Pope has taken away the spiritual life of the Church by robbing her of the doctrine of justification, the climax of harm has been reached. (St. Louis: Concordia Pub. House, 1950), Vol.2, pp.553,554.

Said the renowned English expositor of the nineteenth century, Dr. H. Grattan Guinness:

From the first, and throughout, that movement [the Reformation] was energised and guided by the prophetic Word. Luther never felt strong and free to war against the papal apostasy till he recognised the pope as antichrist. It was then he burned the papal Bull. Knox's first sermon, the sermon which launched him on his mission as a Reformer, was on the prophecies concerning the Papacy. The Reformers embodied their interpretation of prophecy in their confessions of faith, and Calvin in his "Institutes". All the Reformers were unanimous in the matter . . . And their interpretation of these prophecies determined their reforming action . . . It nerved them to resist the claims of that apostate church to the uttermost. It made them martyrs, it sustained them at the stake. And the views of the Reformers were shared by thousands, by hundreds of thousands. They were adopted by princes and peoples... - H. Grattan Guinness, Romanism and the Reformation (Toronto: S. R. Briggs, [n.d.]), pp.250-260.

The United Testimony of the Reformers as to the Identity of Antichrist

Let us now hear the united testimony of the Reformers, for their system of prophetic interpretation became unchallenged in the Protestant movement for three hundred years and actually became known as "the Protestant system" of prophetic interpretation.

Martin Luther (1483-1546)

We are convinced that the papacy is the seat of the true and real Antichrist

-D. Martin Luthers Werke, ed. Briefwechsel (Weimar, 1930-1948), Vol.2, p.167, cited in What Luther Says, ed. Ewald M. Plass, Vol.1, p.34.

You should know that the pope is the real, true, final Antichrist, of whom the entire Scripture speaks, whom the Lord is beginning to consume with the spirit of His mouth and will very soon destroy and slay with the brightness of His coming, for which we are waiting.

-D. Martin Luthers Werke, ed. Kritische Gesamtausgabe (Weimar, 1883-), Vol. 8, p.554., cited in Plass, op. cit, Vol.1, pp.36, 37.

John Calvin (1509-1564)

Daniel and Paul had predicted that Antichrist would sit in the temple of God. The head of that cursed and abominable kingdom, in the Western church, we affirm to be the Pope. When his seat is placed in the temple of God, it suggests, that his kingdom will be such, that he will not abolish the name of Christ or the Church. Hence it appears, that we by no means deny that church may exist, even under his tyranny; but he has profaned them by sacrilegious impiety, afflicted them by cruel despotism, corrupted and almost terminated their existence by false and pernicious doctrines; like poisonous potions, in such churches, Christ lies half buried, the gospel is suppressed, piety exterminated, and the worship of God almost abolished; in a word, they are altogether in such a state of confusion, that they exhibit a picture of Babylon, rather than of the holy city of God.

- John Calvin, Institutes of the Christian Religion (Philadelphia: The Westminster Press, 1960), Bk. 4, chap. 2, sec. 12.

Nicholas Ridley (c. 1500-1555) [Martyr, burned at the stake , Oct 16, 1555 during reign of Roman Catholic Queen "Bloody" Mary]

The head, under Satan, of all mischief is Antichrist and his brood; and the same is he which is the Babylonical beast. The beast is he whereupon the whore sitteth. The whore is that city, saith John in plain words, which hath empire over the kings of the earth.

This whore hath a golden cup of abominations in her hand, whereof she maketh to drink the kings of the earth, and of the wine of this harlot all nations hath drunk; yea, and kings of the earth have lain by this whore; and merchants of the earth, by virtue of her pleasant merchandise, have been made rich.

Now what city is there in the whole world, that when John wrote, ruled over the kings of the earth; or what city can be read of in any time, that of the city itself challenged the empire over the kings of the earth, but only the city of Rome, and that since the usurpation of that See hath grown to her full strength?

- Nicholas Ridley, A Piteous Lamentation of the Miserable Estate of the Church in England, in the Time of the Late Revolt from the Gospel, in Works, p.53.

A Great Cloud of Witnesses: "John Wycliffe, William Tyndale, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Thomas Cranmer; in the seventeenth century, Bunyan, the translators of the King James Bible and the men who published the Westminster and Baptist confessions of Faith; Sir Isaac Newton, [scientist and theologian] John Wesley, Whitfield, Jonathan Edwards; and more recently Spurgeon, Bishop J.C. Christian forefathers who called the Roman Catholic Church
Papacy Antichrist :

[Excerpts, emphasis added]

Martin Luther (Lutheran)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"We here are of the conviction that the papacy is the seat of the true and real Antichrist...personally I declare that I owe the Pope no other obedience than that to Antichrist."

(Aug. 18, 1520) Taken from The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Vol. 2., pg. 121 by Froom.

(In response to a papal bull [official decree]): "I despise and attack it, as impious, false... It is Christ Himself who is condemned therein... I rejoice in having to bear such ills for the best of causes. Already I feel greater liberty in my heart; for at last I know that the pope is antichrist, and that his throne is that of Satan himself."

-- D'Aubigné, b.6, ch. 9.

John Wycliffe

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"When the western church was divided for about 40 years between two rival popes, one in Rome and the other in Avignon, France, each pope called the other pope antichrist - and John Wycliffe is reputed to have regarded them as both being right:

"two halves of Antichrist, making up the perfect Man of Sin between them."

- LeRoy Edwin Froom, The Prophetic Faith of our Fathers, 4 vols. (Wash DC: Review and Herald publishing assc, 1950-1954)

John Calvin (Presbyterian)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"Some persons think us too severe and censorious when we call the Roman pontiff Antichrist. But those who are of this opinion do not consider that they bring the same charge of presumption against Paul himself, after whom we speak and whose language we adopt... I shall briefly show that (Paul's words in II Thess. 2) are not capable of any other interpretation than that which applies them to the Papacy."

Taken from Institutes by John Calvin.

John Knox (Scotch Presbyterian)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

Knox wrote to abolish "that tyranny which the pope himself has for so many ages exercised over the church" and that the pope should be recognized as "the very antichrist, and son of perdition, of whom Paul speaks."

Taken from The Zurich Letters, pg. 199 by John Knox.

Thomas Cranmer (Anglican)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"Whereof it followeth Rome to be the seat of antichrist, and the pope to be very antichrist himself. I could prove the same by many other scriptures, old writers, and strong reasons." (Referring to prophecies in Revelation and Daniel.)

Taken from Works by Cranmer, Vol. 1, pp. 6-7.

Thomas Cranmer (Anglican)

Thomas Cranmer's last words of his last sermon immediately before being burned by Papists:

[Thomas Cranmer was England's Archbishop of Canterbury, martyred by burning at the stake, during the reign of the Roman Catholic Queen "Bloody" Mary, on March 21, 1556]

"And as for the pope, I refuse him as Christ's enemy, and Antichrist, with all his false doctrine."

Roger Williams (First Baptist Pastor in America)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

He spoke of the Pope as "the pretended Vicar of Christ on earth, who sits as God over the Temple of God, exalting himself not only above all that is called God, but over the souls and consciences of all his vassals, yea over the Spirit of Christ, over the Holy Spirit, yea, and God himself...speaking against the God of heaven, thinking to change times and laws; but he is the son of perdition (II Thess. 2)."

Taken from The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers by Froom, Vol. 3, pg. 52.

Cotton Mather (Congregational Theologian)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"The oracles of God foretold the rising of an Antichrist in the Christian Church: and in the Pope of Rome, all the characteristics of that Antichrist are so marvelously answered that if any who read the Scriptures do not see it, there is a marvelous blindness upon them."

And he is, too, properly styled the Son of Perdition, as he has caused the death of numberless multitudes, both of his opposers and followers... Presbyterian Church (Year 2000)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

The following Resolution was unanimously passed by the South Atlantic Presbytery of the Bible Presbyterian Church meeting in Charlotte, North Carolina, March 25, 2000.

The Resolution is as follows-

THE THREAT OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Whereas: The mass media has captivated the world with the activities of Pope John Paul II during his visit to the Holy Land in March 2000; and

Whereas: The Vatican and the Lutheran World Federation have signed, in October, 1999 a joint declaration of accord on the doctrine of justification (only the synods of Wisconsin and Missouri dissented);

and

Whereas: In the middle of February, 200[], PLO chairman Yasser Arafat met with Pope John Paul II at the [V]atican to sign an agreement regarding the future of Jerusalem that warned Israel against any unilateral decision affecting Jerusalem; and

Whereas: Bob Jones University has been unjustly slandered for anti-catholic bias by Senators McCain, Torricelli, Hollings and the liberal mass media; and

Whereas: The House of Representatives of the U.S. Congress has just appointed a Roman Catholic priest as its chaplain for the first time, March 23, 2000; and

Whereas: Pope John Paul II has declared the year 2000 a "Great Jubilee Year" for Roman Catholics that establishes the restoration of indulgences,

THE VERY ISSUE THAT PROMPTED MARTIN LUTHER TO DRAFT THE 95 THESES IN OCTOBER OF 1517: papal spokesman Timothy Shugrue states, "The indulgence is one of the spiritual [privileges] extended during Jubilee. It is a way of applying the merits of the good deeds of the saints and the Virgin Mary and CHrist Himself to the rest of us.";

Therefore: The South Atlantic Presbytery of the Bible Presbyterian Church, at its spring meeting in the Bible Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, N.C.,

March 25, 2000, resolves and warns the Roman Catholic Church, Mystery, Babylon the Great, Mother of Harlots and abominations of the earth (Rev 17:5) constitutes the greatest threat to fundamental Christianity in the 21st century! The Roman Catholic Church has long since forsaken the Bible alone, Grace alone, faith alone, and Christ alone.

There should be no confraternity with this apostate church in ministerial associations, community easter sunrise services, Thanksgiving services, mass evangelism or common social endeavors . We admonish devout believers to lovingly and firmly win Roman Catholics to Christ and urge new converts to obey Rev. 18:4, "And I heard a another voice from heaven, saying, come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sin, and that ye [receive] not her plagues."

Excerpts [emphasis added]:

"In the long war on the truth, the most formidable, relentless and deceptive enemy has been Roman Catholicism .
[It is an apostate , corrupt , heretical , false Christianity , it is \[a front \] for the kingdom of Satan](#) . The true church of the Lord Jesus Christ has always understood this. And even through the Dark Ages from 400 to 1500, prior to the Reformation, genuine Christian believers set themselves apart from that system, and were brutally punished and executed for their rejection of that system."

"The Westminster Confession was written in 1647, the Westminster Confession, the Confession of the Reformers says, "There is no other head of the church but the Lord Jesus Christ, nor can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that Antichrist , that man of sin and son of perdition that exalted himself in the church against Christ and all that is called God."

From Columbia Christians for Life:

It would be well for every Bible-believing, born-again Christian, especially in ecumenized, Romanized, Jesuitized America, to hear this generally outstanding, very informative sermon by Dr. John MacArthur on the true nature of Roman Catholicism.

Roman Catholicism is not Biblical Christianity. Roman Catholicism is a false religion. As Dr. MacArthur said in his sermon, Roman Catholicism "is an apostate, corrupt, heretical, false Christianity, it is a front for the kingdom of Satan."

Unfortunately, as tremendously useful and edifying and well-researched and well-delivered as this sermon is, Dr. MacArthur quotes Scripture from the NASB Bible, which was translated from a corrupted underlying manuscript. The listener is encouraged to read Scriptures quoted from the King James Version, whose underlying manuscript is the Textus Receptus (NT) and Hebrew Masoretic Text (OT).

"We here are of the conviction that the papacy is the seat of the true and real Antichrist...personally I declare that I owe the Pope no other obedience than that to Antichrist." (Aug. 18, 1520) Taken from The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Vol. 2., pg. 121 by Froom. (In response to a papal bull [official decree]): "I despise and attack it, as impious, false... It is Christ Himself who is condemned therein... I rejoice in having to bear such ills for the best of causes. Already I feel greater liberty in my heart; for at last I know that the pope is antichrist, and that his throne is that of Satan himself." --D'Aubigné, b.6,

"... whoever wrote this bull, he is Antichrist. I protest before God, our Lord Jesus, his sacred angels, and the whole world that with my whole heart I dissent from the damnation of this bull, that I curse and execrate it as sacrilege and blasphemy of Christ, God's Son and our Lord. This be my recantation, Oh bull, thou daughter of bulls."

Cotton Mather (Congregational Theologian)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"The oracles of God foretold the rising of an Antichrist in the Christian Church: and in the Pope of Rome, all the characteristics of that Antichrist are so marvelously answered that if any who read the Scriptures do not see it, there is a marvelous blindness upon them." Taken from The Fall of Babylon by Cotton Mather in Fromm's book, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Vol. 3, pg. 113.

John Wesley (Methodist)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

Speaking of the Papacy he said, "He is in an emphatical sense, the Man of Sin, as he increases all manner of sin above measure. And he is, too, properly styled the Son of Perdition, as he has caused the death of numberless multitudes, both of his opposers and followers... He it is...that exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped...claiming the highest power, and highest honour...claiming the prerogatives which belong to God alone." Taken from Antichrist and His Ten Kingdoms by John Wesley, pg. 110.

Thomas Cranmer (Anglican)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"Whereof it followeth Rome to be the seat of antichrist, and the pope to be very antichrist himself. I could prove the same by many other scriptures, old writers, and strong reasons." (Referring to prophecies in Revelation and Daniel.)

1689 London Baptist Confession

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

Chapter 26: Of the Church. The Lord Jesus Christ is the Head of the church, in whom, by the appointment of the Father, all power for the calling, institution, order or government of the church, is invested in a supreme and sovereign manner; neither can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalteth himself in the church against Christ, and all that is called God; whom the Lord shall destroy with the brightness of his coming. (Colossians 1:18; Matthew 28:18-20; Ephesians 4:11, 12; 2 Thessalonians 2:2-9)

John Knox (Scotch Presbyterian)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

Knox wrote to abolish "that tyranny which the pope himself has for so many ages exercised over the church" and that the pope should be recognized as "the very antichrist, and son of perdition, of whom Paul speaks."

Taken from The Zurich Letters, pg. 199 by John Knox.

John Calvin (Presbyterian)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

"Some persons think us too severe and censorious when we call the Roman pontiff Antichrist. But those who are of this opinion do not consider that they bring the same charge of presumption against Paul himself, after whom we speak and whose language we adopt... I shall briefly show that (Paul's words in II Thess. 2) are not capable of any other interpretation than that which applies them to the Papacy."

Taken from Institutes by John Calvin.

Presbyterian Church (Year 2000)

<http://www.remnantofgod.org/4fathers.htm>

The following Resolution was unanimously passed by the South Atlantic Presbytery of the Bible Presbyterian Church meeting in Charlotte, North Carolina, March 25, 2000.

The Resolution is as follows-

THE THREAT OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Whereas: The mass media has captivated the world with the activities of Pope John Paul II during his visit to the Holy Land in March 2000; and

Whereas: The Vatican and the Lutheran World Federation have signed, in October, 1999 a joint declaration of accord on the doctrine of justification (only the synods of Wisconsin and Missouri dissented); and

Whereas: In the middle of February, 200, PLO chairman Yasser Arafat met with Pope John Paul II at the vatican to sign an agreement regarding the future of Jerusalem that warned Israel against any unilateral decision affecting Jerusalem; and

Whereas: Bob Jones University has been unjustly slandered for anti-catholic bias by Senators McCain, Torricelli, Hollings and the liberal mass media; and

Whereas: The House of Representatives of the U.S. Congress has just appointed a Roman Catholic priest as its chaplain for the first time, March 23, 2000; and

Whereas: Pope John Paul II has declared the year 2000 a "Great Jubilee Year" for Roman Catholics that establishes the restoration of indulgences,
THE VERY ISSUE THAT PROMPTED MARTIN LUTHER TO DRAFT THE 95 THESES IN OCTOBER OF 1517:
papal spokesman Timothy Shugrue states,
"The indulgence is one of the spiritual privileges extended during Jubilee. It is a way of applying the merits of the good deeds of the saints and the Virgin Mary and Christ Himself to the rest of us.";

Therefore: The South Atlantic Presbytery of the Bible Presbyterian Church, at its spring meeting in the Bible Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, N.C., March 25, 2000, resolves and warns the Roman Catholic Church, Mystery, Babylon the Great, Mother of Harlots and abominations of the earth (Rev 17:5) constitutes the greatest threat to fundamental Christianity in the 21st century! The Roman Catholic Church has long since forsaken the Bible alone, Grace alone, faith alone, and Christ alone. There should be no confraternity with this apostate church in ministerial associations, community easter sunrise services, Thanksgiving services, mass evangelism or common social endeavors. We admonish devout believers to lovingly and firmly win Roman Catholics to Christ and urge new converts to obey Rev. 18:4, "And I heard a another voice from heaven, saying, come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sin, and that ye recieve [CCL: sic - receive] not her plagues."

"The Jesuit Kulturkampf in the United States"

by Dr. Ronald Cooke

<http://www.truthinternationalministries.com/Publications.html>

The Jesuit Kulturkampf in the United States

The present cultural struggle in the United States is Jesuit-inspired, and is obviously helping to Romanize rather than Christianize this country. In this study, documentation is provided to show that the willingness of some Protestant Evangelicals, some conservative Baptists, some "truly" Reformed, and some Charismatics to become cobelligerents with the Roman Catholic System is helping the goals of the papacy in the United States today. The early American Puritans were united in their opposition to the papacy and the Roman Catholic Church-State.

Unlike modern evangelicals they did NOT regard the Jesuits as their cobelligerent in some cultural struggle; they regarded them as their mortal enemy. They believed that a sound education involved the ability to expose the errors and superstitions of Roman Catholicism. In this first book of his three part series, Dr. Ronald Cooke exposes the activities of the Jesuit Order in America, comparing the Culture War of our own time with what was called the Kulturkampf (Culture Struggle) in Germany during the decades leading to Hitler's rise to power. Is the same pattern happening in America today? Are Catholics, Protestants, and Conservatives being led into an army of Culture Warriors that may one day be used for a diabolical purpose?

"The Deprotestantizing of America"

by Dr. Ronald Cooke

<http://www.truthinternationalministries.com/Publications.html>

The Deprotestantizing of America

The Protestant Reformers regarded the Roman Catholic Church-State as the great apostasy predicted in Paul's second epistle to the Thessalonians. Those who followed the Reformers spent much time proving that apostate Romanism started early in church history and had reached its nadir in the sixteenth century. Bible believing Protestants followed this teaching for many years. However, when the Protestant churches began to be overrun by men who followed the destructive critics, teaching that the Bible was not truly the inspired word of God, a terrible apostasy began. Men who followed these ungodly men now began to fill the posts in Academia. This resulted in a new religion being born: socialistic humanism. Some refer to these modernistic men as liberal progressives, or liberal Protestants, but it should be kept in mind that these were neither liberal nor Protestant. Once they controlled the faculties of schools, they proved to be among the most bigoted of men even to this day. In the early twentieth century, the Jesuits pushed their idea of a Christian Social Order. Simultaneously, the religious socialists were pushing the concept of the new world order. Those involved in the cultural struggle today tend to focus on the loss of morality from modern America, and for a solution, suggest we put doctrine aside and focus on "common ground." But when God's separated Church begins to unite with unbelievers, idolaters, and humanists who deny the Gospel, nothing but spiritual and moral disaster follows. Those who wish to unite Roman Catholicism with Evangelicals and Secular Humanists realize that to do so, they must take the "protest" out of Protestantism. For the Protestant declaration declares that Jesus Christ is the only way of salvation, and denounces unbelief and idolatry as paths of deception and damnation. Hence, is the Deprotestantizing of America resulting in the loss of the true Gospel?

Antichrist Exposed

An historical review of how the Antichrist was viewed by those dissenters from Roman Catholicism before the Reformation, and how the Reformers and Puritans viewed the Antichrist bringing the subject up to modern times. Looking at how some modern Roman Catholic writers have viewed the identity of Antichrist and how modern evangelicals and Reformed also have identified Antichrist.

CCL: "Abortion" could have been ENDED 40+ years and 56+ MILLION dead children ago with FEDERAL Personhood Legislation, such as HR 23 presently in the United States House of Representatives. Similar legislation has been filed in the U.S. Congress continuously since 1994, and with interruption, as far back as 1981 (S.158). The "Pro-Life" [sic] treachery and fraud of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, and various Vatican-front "Pro-Life" [sic] Establishment organizations (e.g., National Right to "Life" and CFR/Jesuit-advised Americans United for "Life") is a disgrace, travesty, and abomination. Sadly, far too many Bible-believing Christian pro-lifers, and sincerely pro-life Roman Catholic pro-lifers are uninformed or deceived about means of ENDING child-murder-by-"abortion NOW by passing "Personhood" legislation, in the States , and at the FEDERAL level.

"The efforts of the self-described "reformers" who objected to ("protested") the doctrines, rituals and ecclesiastical structure of the Roman Catholic Church, led to the creation of new national Protestant churches."

"The Roman Catholics responded with a Counter-Reformation, led by the Jesuit order, which established influence over large parts of Europe, such as Poland. In general, northern Europe, with the exception of Ireland and pockets of Britain, turned Protestant, and southern Europe remained Roman Catholic, while fierce battles that turned into warfare took place in central Europe."

The Jesuits and Modern America - "The Jesuits have been out to Romanize America ..."

" ... as late as 1920 many Protestants were concerned about the inroads Roman Catholicism was making into the politics of the United States. Spearheading the advance was the same old Protestant nemesis, the Jesuits, who have sought to overthrow the Protestant Reformation since the inception of their order."

"Americans, as late as 1920, were still concerned about the scheme the Jesuits were planning for the Romanizing of the United States. Jeremiah J. Crowley, who was a Roman Catholic priest for twenty-one years before his conversion to Christ, wrote a large tome on the effect Roman Catholicism was having upon the United States in his day. He entitled his work Romanism: A Menace to the Nation. The book was published in 1912."

Romanist Phyllis Schlafly's Eagle Forum Opposes
Colorado Personhood Amendment

Dame of Malta, Phyllis Schlafly of the Roman Catholic Establishment is yet another prominent Roman Catholic voice against recognizing now, the God-given, unalienable right to life of every human being as a "Person" beginning at fertilization, in State statutory or constitutional law.

Multiple States over the years have been pursuing this principled pro-life effort to END "abortion" in America.

The four major enemies of State-level personhood amendments to END "abortion" in America are:

- 1) ROMAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS [appointed by the Pope]
- 2) NATIONAL RIGHT TO LIFE
- 3) AMERICANS UNITED FOR LIFE
