Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, our country and its people find constant strength, individual peace, and personal pride in the bounty of our forests and timberlands; and

WHEREAS, from the beginning of our nation's founding, the forest and its products have provided a core of living and freedom that touches and inspires citizens with its majestic beauty and practical use; and

WHEREAS, generating an annual impact of $18.6 billion to South Carolina's economy, forestry constitutes the Palmetto State's largest manufacturing sector in terms of jobs and labor income; and

WHEREAS, forest products are South Carolina's largest harvested crop, totaling $759 million annually, and represent the number one export commodity from the Port of Charleston; and

WHEREAS, as a renewable resource, wood offers the availability and abundance to satisfy the state's ever-growing demands and, through active forest management, we can be assured of a continuous supply of timber for the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 19 - 23, 2015, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the importance and heritage of our vast forest resources, which are inseparably tied to our past, present, and future.
