

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Videos

Record ID: 20140604South-Carolina-State-ParksVideos52748_10152449898813166

South Carolina State Parks

at 19:00:00 on 6/04/2014 UTC

ENRICHMENT? At the Charles Towne Landing Animal Forest, we define enrichment as the process of providing different smells, sounds, sights, tastes and textures to the animals' habitat to encourage natural behavior. Placing scents in an exhibit can provoke curiosity and investigative behavior in a variety of animals. In this short video clip, you can see two of the Animal Forests' bobcats investigate a tire that has been sprayed with coyote scent.

