Message:

I spent much of my 75 years as a moderate Republican, leaving the party 40 years ago over social and racial discrimination issues. I am so proud of you, Governor, for standing up for freedom. The Confederate flag issue must have been a very difficult political decision for you, but you showed courage, compassion and caring for all your constituents regardless of color, party or religion. I am one old Democrat, who salutes you, and thanks you from the bottom of my heart. Our country is much, much better, because of your stand for decency. We need more leaders like you.

Thank you, thank you, thank you!
