

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20110412South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10150164312283166

South Carolina State Parks

at 13:48:52 on 4/12/2011 UTC ·

With spring breaks upon us, and summer on the horizon, which state park would you consider most kid-friendly and why?

Elizabeth Parrish Farish Wish some people would comment! Would love to know and get some ideas for the summer!

at 14:31:24 on 4/12/2011 UTC

Gregg Pratt Poinsett. Gotta get the kids out of camp and on the trails though. Poinsett is the most diverse and interesting area I have visited in SC!

at 15:05:21 on 4/12/2011 UTC

Sarah Dorey there are so many great state parks, it's hard to pick just one!

at 15:23:07 on 4/12/2011 UTC

Ginger Goforth It's hard to beat Table Rock for easy trails, swimming hole, lake swimming, big playground, animal programs, and canoes. Devil's Fork (beach combing, good playground) and Croft (nice community areas in the camping loop, boating, lake fishing, horses, good playground, programs, river swimming/fishing) are also favorites.

at 15:56:07 on 4/12/2011 UTC

Tom Vanderhoof Hickory Knob. Great eatery, swimming pool, lake for fishing, great camping, hiking trails, bow & arrows plus golfing for the older ones. The cabins and lodge are in excellent condition and usually available. Plus the boat ramp with rentals. It's a short drive to de la Howe on the back roads. We always visit the barn on weekends.

at 16:24:12 on 4/12/2011 UTC

Linda Callahan Schimkus My vote would go for Oconee!!! The staff is the greatest...so much to do at Oconee...you don't have to leave the park hardly at all!

at 20:25:03 on 4/12/2011 UTC

David Warren I haven't been to all of them, so for me it is Sesqui, 2 huge playgrounds and the closeness of Edventure, state museum, and the zoo of course. :)

at 0:16:32 on 4/13/2011 UTC

Bob Bannister Table Rock is the winner!!! My nephews still talk about the many trips we took during the summers. I believe it was one of the best parts of their lives. I know it was for me.

at 1:40:42 on 4/13/2011 UTC