Richele,

I know you and I already discussed this informally, but I wanted to make sure you have the date and time of the "unveiling" of Jim's project. I plan to ask Senior Management, along with Jim and I, to be in the room with the panels at 11:30 to unveil it to the Agency. I would love for you to attend at that time and stay through lunch if you are able to! I know it would mean a lot to everyone if you could be there.

Please let me know!

Thanks!
Emily

Subject: LLR's 80th Anniversary and Annual Employee Recognition Program

Good afternoon,

Thursday, September 8th, is a going to be a great day at the South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation. We will celebrate the Agency's 80th anniversary and hold our annual employee recognition program. On September 8th, you are also welcome and encouraged to wear your 80th anniversary t-shirt. If you celebrate by wearing your t-shirt, then you may also wear jeans on that Thursday. (Information on when you can pick up your t-shirt will be forthcoming soon.)

Jim Knight has been working tirelessly on researching and writing the history of the Agency with the support and direction of the Agency's past director, Richele Taylor. I have the good fortune of stepping in after everything has been completed and being a part of its unveiling with all of you. On September 8th, we will unveil an exhibit that tells the history of our agency from the creation of the Department of Labor in 1936 to the launching of the Department of LLR on February 1, 1994. The panels will soon be on display around the Kingstree Building so that all of us and our Board members, licensees, and visitors can appreciate this rich history. I look forward to continuing this project from the time LLR was formed in 1994 so that we can all further understand and appreciate the importance of our Professional Licensing Boards and the Division of Fire and Life Safety that are an integral part of our agency.

The unveiling will occur at 11:30 and then be available for viewing throughout the day. We will also bring the display to the Fire Academy shortly thereafter to view (for those of you that cannot make it to the Kingstree Building on September 8th) before we mount them on the walls around the Agency. I hope everyone will take time to view the exhibit – I know I learned a lot about this Agency's history.

In recognition of all of your hard work, we will also have a barbecue luncheon beginning at 12 noon at the Kingstree Building. In order to insure there's plenty of food for everyone, we need to get a count on the number of employees who will be present that day. Please use the voting buttons as shown at the top of this email in order to let us know if you will attend the luncheon.

I am looking forward to spending the day with all of you on September 8th and hope you can make it.
