Reduce fraud to help keep you UI taxes low

Unemployment Insurance fraud is a crime that affects everyone. It drives up unemployment taxes for businesses, it affects people with legitimate jobless claims and it puts a strain on the state's unemployment trust fund. According to a 2011 study, unemployment fraud cost the federal government $3.3 billion. Click here to see what you can do to help reduce fraud and keep your taxes low.

$400k awarded for training and apprenticeships

The State Workforce Development Board (SWDB)
has granted nearly $400,000
to four organizations that will provide training and apprenticeship opportunities.

This initiative aims to increase training and employment opportunities for priority populations such as individuals with disabilities, ex-offenders, youth and others. Click the button below to read more.
