

From: Matt Walter <mwalter=rslc.gop@gmail19.com>
To: Lt. Governor's Office LtGov@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 1/3/2018 5:21:16 PM
Subject: Our Op-Ed in The Washington Times Today

No Images? Click here

Dear Friends,

I wanted to make sure you saw our op-ed in today's Washington Times. If you are sick and tired of the mainstream media hype about the GOP's prospects in 2018, then I suggest you read our piece for a real understanding of what is happening at the state level, which is always the most reliable indicator of elections to come. The fact is Republicans are winning in deep blue areas, while the Democrats are simply trying to win seats they should have been winning for the past decade.

Investments in state-level elections have yielded some of the biggest successes for Republicans in recent years. Our momentum is energized by the grassroots, not the mainstream media.

Additionally, I wanted to remind you that last month, in anticipation of a critical 2018 election year, we launched a brand new website at rslc.gop. The new site will allow us to expand our digital fundraising operations as we prepare to stand up to liberal mega-donors and their mainstream media allies. Visit the site at rslc.gop, and let me know what you think.

Please stay in touch,

Matt Walter
President
Republican State Leadership Committee

The Washington Times

Flipping Blue States to Red

By RSLC President Matt Walter

Preferences

|
Unsubscribe

Paid for by the Republican State Leadership Committee

1201 F Street, NW, Suite 675, Washington, DC 20004.

This expenditure was not made with the cooperation or prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, any candidate, or person or committee acting on behalf of the candidate.

Forward