

From: Associated Press <ap@insights.associatedpress.org>
To: Adams, ChaneyChaneyAdams@gov.sc.gov
Date: 9/15/2016 5:11:52 AM
Subject: "What's the Lead, AP?" - Sept. 15, 2016

Top stories in Washington, the 2016 campaign and politics nationwide from The Associated Press

Email not displayed
View it in your inbox

"WHAT'S THE LEAD, AP?"

In this Monday, Sept. 12, 2016 photo, Donald Trump supporters from left, Chris Hart, radio personality, David A. (C) Sheriff of Milwaukee County, Wis., actor Jon Voight, radio personalities Mike Gallagher, Dennis Prager, and Hugh Downs part in a town hall meeting with the Great America PAC in Lake Mary, Fla. The Great America PAC is rolling through battleground states, opening offices and registering voters. (AP Photo/John Raoux)

DAILY WASHINGTON NEWS

Pro-Trump super PAC acts as candidate stand-in on bus tour

LAKE MARY, Fla. (AP) — The tour bus features a giant photo of a waving, smiling Donald Trump, but the person on the bus is actor Jon Voight. He's trailed by conservative radio stars and strategists for a super political action committee. The Great America PAC is rolling through battleground states, opening offices and registering voters.

Clinton back on campaign trail after releasing health info

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — Hillary Clinton returns to the campaign trail Thursday following a bout of pneumonia that kept her out of the campaign for three days and revived questions about both the Democratic nominee and Republican Donald Trump's health. Clinton's campaign responded with a new letter from her doctor Wednesday declaring her fit to be president and recovering well from her recent illness.

Louisiana, Florida governors take different approach on aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's a tough time for a governor to come to Washington, hat in hand, to ask for billions of dollars in aid for a hard-hit state, especially with Congress in the midst of election-season dysfunction and dominated by tightfisted Republicans. But Gov. John Bel Edwards is back for the second straight week, pleading for almost $3 billion to help Louisiana rebuild from last month's devastating floods, undeterred by warnings that he should keep expectations low.

ICYMI

This undated file photo released by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration made during the North
Canyons Expedition 2013, shows corals on Mytilus Seamount off the coast of New England in the North Atlantic (President Barack Obama will establish on Thursday the first national marine monument in the Atlantic. The move permanently protect nearly 5,000 square miles of underwater canyons and mountains off the coast of New England Office of Ocean Exploration and Research, via AP, File)

SUBSCRIBE HERE

© 2016 Associated Press. All rights reserved. 450 West 33rd Street, New York, NY 10001.

Update your preferences. Unsubscribe here.