Ted,

As we discussed this week, I would like to get a few minutes with the Governor to introduce her to Gorden Johnson of Neighbor to Family. Attached is his biographical information. They are currently contracting with DSS to provide best practices foster care placement with the goal of keeping siblings together in one placement. They have only recently begun receiving kids in South Carolina's foster care system. I believe that the Governor would be impressed by the work they have done in other states.

Would the Governor have some time either the second or fourth week of April, preferably on a Legislative Day?

Please advise,

Jenny
