Dear Mrs. Cariens,

Congratulations on your selection as 2016 Elementary School Principal of the Year by the South Carolina Association of School Administrators! To receive such an honor speaks volumes to your commitment to excellence in education. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to join in recognizing your exceptional leadership that makes Oak Grove Elementary School an outstanding place to work and learn. South Carolina is better because of educators like you, and I thank you for your dedicated service to the young people of our great state.

Michael and I wish you and the Oak Grove Elementary School family the best for continued success. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley
