

---

From: Larry Clark <LarryClark@stokesauto.com>
Sent: Tuesday, October 18, 2016 9:28 AM
To: Haley, Nikki
Subject: RE: very proud

Josh will be missed. He was always willing to go the EXTRA mile or two.

---

From: Larry Clark
Sent: Monday, October 17, 2016 6:43 PM
To: joshbaker@gov.sc.gov
Subject: very proud

Josh Baker –

My wife and I were part of a large crowd at the Marriot in Charleston Saturday night and another large crowd at East Cooper Baptist yesterday – different diverse groups. Don't tell me Democrats and Republicans, citizens of various diverse origins can't agree on something. ALL had high accolades for our Governor. Some in the groups said they were not voting for Pres/ Vice Pres – BOTH Democrats and Republicans. This reminds me of a large turtle caught in Charleston traffic moving at best 5mph...stop and go. The turtle made the decision to withdraw into his shell and wait for the danger to pass only to lose his life. America has a choice. Our company's workforce of over 650 associates consists of MANY single parent households, many female. While they certainly don't condone certain vocabulary, they will quickly tell you they are more concerned about jobs, equality of pay, integrity, their children's future, and being protected by our local police. Once outspoken African American said it was more important to her what Hillary has done and what Mr. Trump has not done – based on her record of lies and deceit – this Democrat says she will be voting Republican for the first time in her life.

Take care and Thank You for allowing me to share some thoughts and experiences.

Larry Clark