See below from my first email.

Chief Keel said he still has guys available and is unaware of any needs, but he also doesn't have a problem with it. We can either enter it now or wait until an actual need arises.

My understanding is that Chief Keel did not think it was necessary...?

I don't see any problem with this. Please call Sheriff Chuck Wright and ask for his thoughts. My thought is it would be beneficial for our rural counties. He will give good advice. Sheriff Matthews is another you could check with. Once they weigh in, I will move forward.

Thanks,

Governor,

By statute, law enforcement entities must enter into contracts to assist one another across jurisdictional lines. These contracts require city or county council approval. The S. C. Sheriff's Association has asked for an EO waiving these requirements during this declared disaster because they says it's too burdensome to get city and county council approval quickly. By statute, you have the authority to do this.

The Sheriff's Association said they are aware state officers are still available to assist at this time, but they want the EO in case it becomes necessary. Chief Keel said he still has guys available and is unaware of any needs, but he also doesn't have a problem with it. We can either enter it now or wait until an actual need arises. Swati and Becca thought you should discuss on your 5:00 call.

Let me know how you would like to proceed.
