EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 94-01

WHEREAS, I have been informed that James H. Dulaney, Calhoun County Council member, has been convicted by the Jury of Calhoun County on two counts of breach of trust; and,

WHEREAS, the crime of breach of trust is considered to be one involving moral turpitude; and,

WHEREAS, § 8-1-90 of the South Carolina Code of Laws requires the Governor to declare the office of a public officer to be vacant in the case of the conviction of such officer; and,

WHEREAS, § 4-9-90 of the South Carolina Code of Laws requires a vacancy in the County governing body to be filled by special election if the vacancy occurs one hundred eighty days or more prior to the next general election; and,

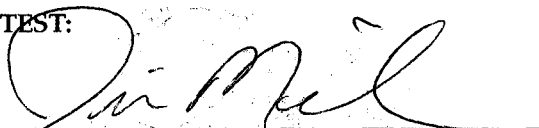

WHEREAS, I as Governor of the State of South Carolina am mindful of the duties and responsibilities vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Laws of the state of South Carolina, I hereby order that the office of Calhoun County Council member previously held by James H. Dulaney be declared vacant and that a special election be held to elect a successor to fill the vacant office. The election shall be conducted by the Calhoun County Election Commission in accordance with applicable constitutional and statutory provisions. The voting places to be used in conducting the election shall be the established precinct voting places. Notice of the holding of this election shall be given by the respective authority charged by law with conducting an election in Calhoun County in accordance with Section 7-13-35 of the Code.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 94-03

WHEREAS, Congress has adopted and the President of the United States has signed the "Brady Handgun Violence Protection Act" (the Act) (PL 103-159); and

WHEREAS, prior to the transfer of any handgun, a transferee must provide certain background information as required under 18 U.S.C. 922(3) (paragraph 3 of the Act) to the transferor; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires any transferor of a handgun within one day of application by transferee to provide notice of the contents of the statement to the Chief law enforcement officer.

NOW, THEREFORE, I direct the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division to develop and implement an instant criminal background check system with the adequate accessibility to license firearms dealers in the State in order to expeditiously identify individuals prohibited from receiving a handgun that would be in violation of Federal, State or local law. Implementation of this system shall be completed by February 28, 1994.

Executive Order 94-03

Furthermore, the Chief of SLED is the designated "chief law enforcement officer" for the State of South Carolina, and all requests made pursuant to the Act shall be made through SLED. Any background check must be completed in accordance with the Act by SLED prior to any sale, delivery or transfer of a handgun.

Any appropriate changes in state law necessary to bring the State in compliance with any other provision of the Act shall be prepared by SLED with the assistance of the Governor's Office.

This Order shall take effect immediately upon the signature of the Governor and shall remain in effect until such statutes deemed necessary, if any, to comply with the Act shall be approved by the General Assembly and signed by the Governor. At such time, if necessary, this Order shall be rescinded by Executive Order.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 94-04

WHEREAS, the quality of the workforce is one of the most important factors in the continued economic growth of South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the quality of the workforce is one of the most important factors for all types of business and industry; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina's businesses and industries cannot continue to compete effectively in today's marketplace unless their existing and future employees possess the skills and abilities to cope with demands placed on them by technological changes in the workplace; and

WHEREAS, the future productivity and profitability of South Carolina's businesses and industries rests with the ability of our public education and training systems to produce a competitive workforce that possesses the skills and abilities necessary to compete in a global economy; and

WHEREAS, the effectiveness of our schools in transitioning youth into the workplace will be dependent upon their ability to link youth development activities with employer and industry strategies for upgrading the skills of their existing workers; and

WHEREAS, the need exists for an equal partnership between labor and education to facilitate the development of programs to address the changing workforce needs of our State's employers; and

EXECUTIVE ORDER 94-04

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 94-06

WHEREAS, there exists a need to control the growth of prisons and jail population in the State of South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the State Centered Program was initiated by the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation to demonstrate the feasibility of controlling the growth of prisons and jail population by making more conservative use of imprisonment; and

WHEREAS, the State Centered Program's Plan suggests that imprisonment should be limited to the most serious offenders while employing a range of appropriate sentencing options between prison and traditional probation; and

WHEREAS, the State Centered Program currently operates in three states, and the Foundation intends to expand to two or three additional states and has pledged a substantial level of grant funding as well as technical assistance for three to five years to supplement State monies to implement their Plan.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, I hereby create a Steering Committee to be known as the "Edna McConnell Clark Foundation Grant Steering Committee" to consider and assist in the development of the State Centered Program's ultimate objective of:

- (1) an improved policy-making process whereby state and local officials develop sound corrections and sentencing policies;
- (2) an array of high quality community sanctions;

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

WHEREAS, Executive Order 93-30, issued December 22, 1993, provided for the scheduling of a March 8, 1994, referendum on the proposed annexation of a portion of Williamsburg County to Florence County; and

WHEREAS, on September 2, 1993, materials were submitted to the United States Department of Justice pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 for preclearance; and

WHEREAS, identified in the submission materials, the holding of the referendum was contingent upon the lack of an objection by the Department of Justice after its review of the submission materials; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Justice is reviewing the earlier Town of Hemingway annexations simultaneously with the county-to-county annexation; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Justice has requested additional information from the Town of Hemingway, thereby extending its 60-day period within which it must render an objection, if any; and

WHEREAS, in order to avoid setting another date that may be invalidated or postponed, the special referendum for the county-to-county annexation will be scheduled by Executive Order to be conducted not sooner than sixty (60) days and not longer than ninety (90) days following the lack of an objection by the Department of Justice; and

WHEREAS, it appears to me that the Commission appointed on February 26, 1993, by Executive Order 93-03, to study and report on the proposed annexation of a portion of Williamsburg County to Florence County has satisfactorily completed its investigation and reported relevant facts as prescribed by S.C. Code Ann. § 4-5-160 (Rev. 1986) and the South Carolina Constitution; and

WHEREAS, other prerequisites to the ordering of a county annexation election required by law have already been satisfied;

NOW, THEREFORE, under the authority vested in me by S.C. Code Ann. §§ 4-5-170 and 4-5-180 (Supp. 1993), I do hereby order an election to be held not sooner than sixty (60) days and not longer than ninety (90) days following the lack of an objection by the Department of Justice, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 of Title 4 of the Code to determine whether the area of Williamsburg County set forth in the Petition filed on March 1, 1993,

Executive Order 94-08

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 94-15

WHEREAS, tourism is an important industry worldwide and the second leading industry in South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, there is a growing domestic and international market for cultural and heritage tourism; and

WHEREAS, developing sustainable economies in the rural areas of our state often requires that we employ creative non-traditional economic development methods; and

WHEREAS, many urban areas, small towns and rural areas are major repositories of the historic, ethnic, religious, artistic, political, agricultural and industrial traditions of our state and of the nation; and

WHEREAS, small towns and rural areas need to diversify and strengthen their economies; and

July 19, 1994

WHEREAS, by assembling and linking the cultural and natural resources of the rural areas with the infrastructure of the more urban areas, a critical mass of attractions and services can be pooled to fashion viable and appropriate tourist attractions; and

WHEREAS, a bill is before Congress to designate a corridor in the western part of the state which runs from Oconee to Charleston and includes fourteen counties and over 40 towns as a national heritage corridor; and

WHEREAS, other significant areas of our state have the potential for developing heritage areas or corridors; and

WHEREAS, heritage tourism balances both environmental and cultural conservation with economic development; and

WHEREAS, successful development of these areas will improve the social and economic viability of participating communities and, in turn, of the state, and

WHEREAS, the state's ability to provide technical assistance and a limited amount of funding to leverage private investment, conservation, preservation and reinvestment efforts will be crucial to the success of these efforts and program support from federal agencies, private foundations and the present system of parks will also be necessary;

NOW, THEREFORE, under the authority vested in me by S.C. Code Ann. § 1-30-10 (Cum. Supp. 1993), I do hereby charge the South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism, to create a heritage program for economic revitalization in South Carolina.

WHEREAS, physical fitness is an optimum state of being:

WHEREAS, it is recognized that the promotion of good health practices and attitudes, including physical activity, will improve the health status of citizens of the State of South Carolina;

WHEREAS, in the United States of America, and particularly in the State of South Carolina, most diseases are now the result of poor lifestyle choices and the lack of supportive environments;

WHEREAS, government has the responsibility of providing its citizens with current and factual information and opportunities to improve their health and well-being;

WHEREAS, the promotion of opportunities for engaging in physical activity will improve the health status of citizens of South Carolina.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, I hereby direct the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness, created by Executive Order 88-03 dated February 5, 1988, to advance the level of physical activity of all people of the State of South Carolina.

The governing body of the Council shall be composed of 18 members. Ten of the members will be selected at-large by the Governor. These members will be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the Governor until replaced. The remaining eight members of the Council shall represent organizations and local physical fitness councils that are affiliated with the Council in accordance with the Council's bylaws. Members of the Council representing affiliated organizations and councils shall be selected by their respective constituents. All Council members should be experienced or interested in the promotion of physical activity and healthy lifestyles.

One member of the Council shall be designated by the Governor as Chairman. The Chairman shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The Council shall be staffed by an Executive Director and such other employees assigned by the Department of Health and Environmental Control as may be needed to accomplish the work of the Council.

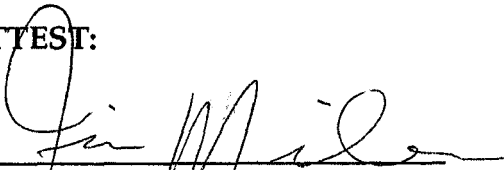

The Council is authorized by the Governor to receive and disburse funds made available for these purposes through the Department of Health and Environmental Control.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

WHEREAS, the taxation of real and personal property by local and state authorities in South Carolina generates $2.6 billion annually, more than $745 per person, per year, for all South Carolinians; and

WHEREAS, this system of property assessment and taxation has been the focus of intense and widespread public debate in recent months; and

WHEREAS, property taxes in this State increased an average of 21.4 percent during the 1980s, compared with a national average of 10.7 percent for the same period, and as a result there is much dissatisfaction among many South Carolinians over our existing system of property taxation ; and

WHEREAS, there were several proposals for moderate to sweeping reform of the property taxation system debated by the legislature during the 1994 session of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, all South Carolinians reap the benefits of thoughtful, well-reasoned policy making, and mindful, intelligent debate on this important issue promises the best hope of producing sound policy recommendations for meaningful property tax reform.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, I hereby create the Governor's Advisory Committee on Property Tax Accountability and Reform. This Committee will be charged with studying possible changes in certain taxes and the impact such changes may have on the economic development and growth of the State's economy. Specifically, this Committee shall have the following duties:

1. The Committee shall review viable, fiscally sound alternatives to the existing system of property taxation, with due consideration given to the relationship between property taxation and other forms of taxation in South Carolina.
2. The Committee shall review the process currently used in the administration and collection of property taxes.
3. The Committee shall review the impact that changes proposed to the existing system of property taxation may have on other components of the overall tax burden in this state, including, but not limited to, personal and corporate income, sales, and use taxation. If the Committee finds it necessary or prudent to do so, it shall develop proposals for reform in these other areas as well.
4. The Committee shall also develop proposals for controlling state and local government spending in relationship to changes in our tax system.

Staff from the Office of the Governor, the Budget Division of the S. C. Budget and Control Board, and the Department of Revenue shall provide administrative support for the Committee and otherwise assist the Committee as needed. The Committee shall report its findings concerning any specific recommendations it deems appropriate, including draft legislation, to the Governor and General Assembly by January 1, 1995. Having completed its work, the Committee shall terminate February 1, 1995, unless reauthorized by legislation or Executive Order.

October 14, 1994

The Governor's appointees to this Committee shall consist of:

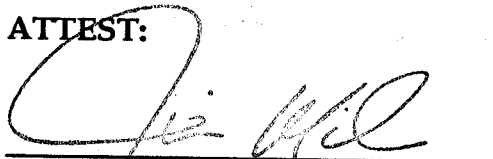

- Four members appointed to represent the public at-large,
- Four members appointed to represent the business community of this State,
- Four members appointed to represent state and local governments,
- One Chairman, appointed by the Governor, who shall preside over all meetings of the Committee.

This Executive Order shall take effect immediately and shall be in effect until February 1, 1995, unless extended by Executive Order or legislative action.

WHEREAS, R. 376, H. 4842 (1994) was enacted during the 1994 legislative session by the Legislature of the state of South Carolina and was signed into law April 20, 1994; and

WHEREAS, R. 376, H. 4842 provided for a change in the election of the members of the Georgetown County Board of Education from a partisan election to a non-partisan election; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Justice has refused to pre-clear such change pursuant to the 1965 Voting Rights Act; and

WHEREAS, as a result no elections for the Georgetown County Board of Education can be scheduled and held during the 1994 November elections; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the Justice Department's refusal to pre-clear said act, the non-partisan election for the Georgetown County School Board election originally scheduled to be held on the second (2nd) Tuesday in November 1994 has been rendered void; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 7-13-1170, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, (Cum. Supp. 1993) ("Code"), if an election fails to be held and these facts are made to appear to the satisfaction of the Governor, he shall order an election to be held at the time and place, and upon the notice being given which to him appears adequate to insure the will of the electorate be fairly expressed; and

WHEREAS, it has been made to appear to my satisfaction that a special election should be held in Georgetown County for the Georgetown County Board of Education as soon as possible; and

WHEREAS, it further appears that the most expeditious manner in which such an election may be held would be in accordance with the provisions of §7-13-190 of the Code, and that no specific date should be set for such election but such election should be held in conjunction with the pre-clearance of such special election date by the United States Department of Justice pursuant to the 1965 Voting Rights Act.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution of this State and by Section 7-13-1170 of the Code, I hereby order a special election shall be held for all seats on the Georgetown County Board of Education presently held by any incumbents whose terms would be expired after the 1994 general election and for any and all other board members who have resigned such seats effective with the 1994 general election. The date for such election shall be the eighteenth (18th) Tuesday following pre-clearance of such special election by the United States Department of Justice pursuant to the 1965 Voting Rights Act.
