Other big international names in the jazz world include the award winning Bob James, José James, Kendrick Scott Oracle, tenor saxophonist Houston Person, known for his legendary partnership with the great vocalist Etta Jones. There are some exciting collaborations at this year's Standard Bank Joy of Jazz. The Graz Roots Project celebrates past South African composers and musicians who gave future generations the sound of mbaqanga, mgqashiyo, maskandi and African jazz and features a powerhouse of musicians including Billy Monama, Concord Nkabinde, McCoy Mrubata, Lwanda Gogwana, Mduduzi Mtshali, Paki Peloeole and Themba Mokoena.

The inimitable firebrand percussionist and leader of the legendary Ritual Trio, Kahil El'Zabar brings an outfit that features jazz tenor saxophonist Teodross Avery and the incredible vocalist Dwight Trible who makes his return to the Senegalese bass player and vocalist Alune Wade brings the Havana-Paris-Dakar project to this year's festival. The project is an eclectic celebration of the Afro-Cuban jazz tradition with musical sojourns into Wade's Franco-Phone Senegalese heritage. It features Argentinean piano maestro Leonardo Genovese.

US born vocalist Deborah J Carter teams up with Paul van Kessel from The Netherlands for "New York 'Round Midnight" which includes a rhythm section, horns, and vocalists from the cream of the Dutch jazz scene to take listeners back to the heyday of jazz in the '50s and '60s.

Trumpeter Feya Faku presents The Swiss Unit Project- featuring music from his album Le Ngoma (The Song) - with Swiss musicians Domenic Landolf (tenor sax, alto flute), Jean-Paul Brodbeck (piano), Fabian Gisler (acoustic bass) and Dominic Egli (drums). The concept includes tribute songs such as : "Miss Benjamin" (for Sathima Bee) and "Dirge" (for Zim Ngqawana): "I created this concept to celebrate legends that came before me.
