

When obtained even once, it must not be reported as sufficient. Its report is desired at intervals before the fifth month of pregnancy.