Subject: Letter to Governor Haley from Adapt Pharma

Rebecca,

I met with Michelle Ford of Adapt Pharma last week. She is looking to offer the opioid overdose reversal drug, Narcan to each high school in South Carolina for free. While we do not know of any overdoses occurring in schools yet, the company's intention is to raise awareness among teens, parents, and educators.

Hi Sara,

I have a letter I need to get to Governor Haley. I am not sending it as a constituent, rather from Adapt resources regarding efforts that the Governor in PA has been working on. I have attached it here and can track down someone but am asking my other contacts to assist as it will get lost in the shuffle?

Thanks,
