Thank you for writing - your message has been received. I typically receive a large number of messages each day and do my best to read each one and respond in a most timely manner.

If you are a constituent (a resident of Senate District 20), please be sure your name and residential address are included in your message so I may appropriately respond as soon as possible.

Again, thank you for your correspondence. I appreciate your understanding and patience in awaiting a more personal response.

Kind regards,
John Courson
SC Senator
