---

Here's a draft for you to work with – you may want to reword the last sentence, but it would be helpful to include something urging for rapid advance of the conference report. Thank you!

"Deepening the Charleston Harbor is critical for our state's economy and the businesses of all sizes that rely on the Port. Today's action in the House is a key step. Thank you to Speaker Ryan and House Leadership for making WRDA a priority before the lame duck session, as well as our federal delegation for their tireless efforts to ensure its passage. I urge the House and Senate to resolve the differences between their bills and approve the conference report as quickly as possible."

Regards,

Tate
