

From: ExcellinEd News <Info=ExcellinEd.org@mail97.atl51.rsgsv.net>

To: Kevin L. BryantKevinBryant@scstatehouse.gov

Date: 7/3/2017 1:47:35 PM

Subject: This Week in #SchoolChoice - July 3

View this email in your browser

NEWS YOU CAN USE

This week's #SchoolChoice highlights you might have missed.

New Studies Show Private School Choice Works

Studies released last week looking at private school choice programs in Louisiana and Indiana find that the longer students attend a private school using a voucher, the better their academic achievement.

School Choice Victory for Georgia Families

On Monday, the Georgia Supreme Court unanimously upheld the state's tax-credit scholarship program, which empowers qualifying Georgia families to select private school options for their children.

New Hampshire Protects Town Tuitioning and Private Options

In New Hampshire, some small school districts are unable to serve all grade levels. A new law secures the ability of towns to offer families the choice of a public school or a

Supreme Court Ruling Returns Church-State Cases to States

The U.S. Supreme Court sent two Blaine Amendment cases back to the states in light of their Trinity Lutheran decision, where the high court ruled that excluding a religious preschool from participating in a state-funded playground resurfacing program was unconstitutional.

Trinity Lutheran could influence state court decisions nationwide on religious private school funding, including vouchers.

We recently updated our email distribution system
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Copyright © 2017 Foundation for Excellence in Education, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because of your commitment to the education reform movement .
ExcelinEd, P.O. Box 10691, Tallahassee, FL 32302